By Demanding the Alderman's
Resignation for Unbecoming Conduct — Turner Asked for Accounting of Municipal Register Funds

Mayor George H. Brown has asked Ald. John Turner to resign his position as alderman. The chief magistrate charges that the alderman has not acted in a manner becoming a gentleman, and he says, if the alderman refuses to resign, he will take the matter to the city council.

Yesterday afternoon, after noon hour, Ald. Turner filed a resolution in the city clerk's office asking the mayor to give an accounting of the money collected from Sunday moving picture shows, and the disbursement of it. A few hours later the alderman received a letter from the mayor asking him to resign.

Instead of resigning the alderman, this forenoon, communicated with his comrade, Melvin M. Johnson, instructing him to proceed against the Boston Herald that published today, the mayor's letter to the alderman, and to adopt whatever course he thought proper relative to the matter.

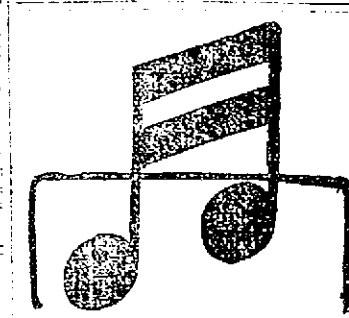

"The letter," said Ald. Turner, "was of a slanderous nature and I do not propose to stand for it. I have instructed my counsel, Melvin M. Johnson, of Boston, to proceed against the Boston Herald, in which paper the mayor's letter to me appeared, and I have also instructed Mr. Johnson to adopt whatever course he thinks proper with Mayor Brown, in connection with the letter. I have lived in Lowell a good many years, and I do not intend to allow an attack of this sort to go unchallenged."

"I have not had any personal quarrel with Mayor Brown and it has been my desire to assist him when I could. He was pursuing the right course. When I filed the resolution yesterday it was not because of any personal feeling against the mayor. I knew that the public was clamoring for an accounting of the money received from Sunday moving picture shows and I felt that it was up to the city government to ask the mayor to tell how much had been collected and how and to whom it was disbursed. It did not occur to me that such a resolution would embarrass the mayor and I did not dream that it would anger him to the point of personal attack, such as he makes upon me in his letter."

Asked if he had any statement to make relative to his request for Ald. Turner's resignation, Mayor Brown said: "There is nothing further to be said at this time. I will stand by the matter when the time arrives."

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—The leader this morning says:

The woman known to the police as Mrs. James Boyle and believed to be the brains behind the kidnapping of Billy Whittle, was identified yesterday by a Cleveland vessel owner as Anna Aldemott. She was born in Chicago. Her father is a well known business man there and she has a brother who is a banker. She was educated in a convent.

Three years ago she disappeared from home. Since then her family has been in ignorance of her whereabouts. She is 22 years old. The vessel owner's half sister is the girl's mother. A sister of the woman visited her a short time ago.

CROWD HOOTED

WHEN ALLEGED KIDNAPPERS
WERE TAKEN TO TRAIN

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—With hoots and jeers ringing in their ears, James H. Boyle and his wife, arrested here as the kidnappers of little Willie Whittle of Sharon, Pa., were escorted by police to an Erie train just before it left at 5:25 last night for Mead, Pa.

This practically closes the case as far as Cleveland is concerned, as further action will be taken by the Pennsylvania authorities. However, the Cleveland police have a club over the heads of the Boyles in joint indictment returned yesterday charging James H. Boyle and Helene Boyle, alias Faulkner, with blackmail. This charge is based on the payment of $10,000 ransom by J. P. Whittle for the recovery of his son Willie, here, last night. This indictment will be used by the local officials in the event that the case in Pennsylvania fails of conviction.

Sheriff William Chace of Mercer county, Pa., and Chief of Police Claude of Sharon arrived here yesterday and immediately originated proceedings for the return of the prisoners.

The Cuyahoga county officials waived their rights to the Boyles and the latter informed Chief Kohler that they would not fight extradition to the Keystone state.

A few minutes before the train left the station the couple were hurried from central police station to the depot in a patrol wagon. As the prisoners alighted from the wagon a great throng surged about them and it was with much difficulty that a path was cleared to the coaches. As Boyle and his wife, each accompanied by two patrolmen, walked through the train and the crowd greeted them with hoots and jeers.

Mrs. Boyle had nothing to do with the actual kidnapping of Willie Whittle, according to the statement made yesterday by the woman and her husband. Police Prosecutor Daniel Cull was in conversation with the Boyles, and the latter said that although he expected to be "railroaded" when tried in Pennsylvania, there is absolutely no way to connect his wife with any offense committed in that state.

To the Associated Press Mrs. Boyle said she first saw "Billy" here in Cleveland and that she "had nothing to do with the other part of the case."

Mrs. Boyle apparently was in good spirits, but her husband maintained his indifferent manner, having little to say. Most of the questions asked were addressed to Mrs. Boyle, and all eyes in the small circle of listeners gazed at the attractive woman.

"Why don't someone look at Mr. Boyle?" asked Chief Kohler.

"He is not so charming," came the quick reply from Mrs. Boyle.

Then the man prisoner caused a general laugh by paying his wife this compliment:

"Mrs. Boyle has three leather medals from tan shoes for being charming."

Mrs. Boyle denied that she is Helen Faulkner and declared emphatically that she had never been on the stage. But she said she "got a chance now," she added merrily.

Mrs. Boyle also denied that she is in any way related to the Whittle family. She had never been in Cleveland before, but when asked if she had been in Sharon a while at her husband's was the only answer.

"How did you think of Billy?" Mrs. Boyle was asked.

"He is a dear child, and I really tried to part with him," she said.

To Chief Kohler, Mrs. Boyle said she was born and reared in Chicago and that her father is a resident of that city.

The last doubt as to the identity of Boyle was removed yesterday when Thomas F. Boyle of Sharon called at the police station and said the prisoner is his brother.

DEATHS
WATERS.—Catherine Waters, a widow of John, died this morning at her home in Tewksbury. She was 81 years of age and had lived in Tewksbury for 50 years. She was survived by a nephew, John J. Young, and a niece, Miss Mary J. Young, of Tewksbury.

O'GRADY.—The many friends of Edward F. O'Grady will be pained as learn of his death which occurred last night at his home, 12 Newport street, aged 39 years. He was a young man of sterling character. He was the son of the late Capt. John O'Grady, and was a native of this city. He leaves to mourn his loss his mother, Mrs. Susan O'Grady, two sisters, Nellie and Mary, a brother, John O'Grady, a teacher in the High school, and Mrs. Charles F. Young, and one brother, John O'Grady.

Daniel Downey, of Tewksbury, was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on John Grant, an employee of the state hospital at Tewksbury. According to the testimony offered during the course of the trial Grant and Downey got into an argument on a Boston bound electric car last Saturday night.

A battle of words ensued and Grant instead of getting off the car at Tewksbury Centre, as was his custom, went on to Foster's corner where Downey usually got off to go to his home, and the two men met. Grant struck Downey and the latter drew a knife and slashed

Assault and Battery

George Malinos and Spyros Farfalis, charged with assault and battery on Gregory Vasiliu, on March 17th, pleaded not guilty through their counsel, James E. O'Donnell. A. O. Hamel appeared for the government.

Gregory Vasiliu is employed as a bobbin boy at the Merrimack mills and while returning from work about six o'clock on the night of March 17 he claims he was met near the corner of Dutton and Merrimack streets by the defendants and the latter struck him with clubs.

Several witnesses testified for the defense, but the defendants were found guilty and each ordered to pay a fine of $20 in three days or be committed to jail for two months.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Vesper-Country Club
Held Last Evening

It was a rough night on the coast, yet 75 members of the Vesper-Country club took a chance on the suspension bridge at Tyngs Island and attended the annual meeting of the club, last evening.

The elements interfered materially with the size of the attendance, but not with the good spirits of those who did attend. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by Supr. F. J. Clough and Pease's orchestra furnished music. There was singing by Andrew G. Swamp, Robert W. Thompson, Harry H. Pollard, William H. Patton, Edward Ellingwood, Fred Howard and others.

At 8 o'clock President A. M. Coughlin called to order and Supr. A. G. Swamp read the records of the last annual meeting.

Treasurer's Report
Treasurer Arthur J. Murkland read a very complete and interesting report showing that the club has made considerable financial gain during the year. The comparisons with last year show that the new bridge has added greatly to the receipts of the island club house. The total of sales for the club house for the past season is $25,042, as against $18,543.17 for the previous season, showing a gain for the year of $7,601.85.

The receipts from the turnstile on the bridge total $679.11, while the expenses of carrying it on and paying for interest on the bonds was $226.03, less than the receipts, proving that the bridge is a self-supporting affair. The bridge cost $1447.41, which was paid for by an issue of bonds to the amount of $1000 and the balance of $447.41 was paid out of the regular account. Of the bonds $1000 has already been redeemed, so that the bridge now stands the club at the figure of $369.41. A new boat and a new ice house were built and large sums were expended on the golf links. The general expenses of the Vesper-Country club house, $14,533.63, and at the boat house, $18,522.60, making the grand total expense, $12,406.23. Added to this are the depreciation figures, given as $350 on the buildings, $750 on the furnishings, $1447.41 on the bridge, $100 on personal property at the boat house, and boat debts of $23.55, making the total charge to the regular account $24,007.18, but the total receipts were $21,533.34, leaving a balance of $164.19 for the profit and loss account.

The assets of the club are figured at $43,579.73 and the gross liabilities at $32,291.81. These liabilities may be reduced by quick assets figured at $37,725.75, leaving a net liability of $28,816.06.

The restaurant department made a profit of $165.35, an annual result for the club restaurant. The stable department showed a loss of $615.10 and the loss in the golf department was $331.60. The golf department was $331.60. The golf department was $331.60.

The giving up of the boat house as a part of the club sports, the fact that the bungalow is old and will soon need serious repairs; the need of a proper automobile house; the fact that the rooms in the present house have not been adequate for a number of occasions to accommodate all who desire to stop at the island; the need of a hall to seat about 40 people for club affairs, such as the annual meeting, ladies' day, team golf dinners, large private parties, and which can also be used for dancing, brings a serious proposition before your executive committee. In considering this matter early in the year the president appointed a committee on permanent improvements, with the view of having out a general club plan, which will be needed during the next ten years. This committee on permanent improvements, having given this matter careful consideration and at the present time has three architects drawing plans for new club buildings. It is not the intention of your committee to do anything in this line the coming year, but it was thought best by it that before any changes were made a thoroughly well-considered plan should be adopted. We are also compelled on account of the increased business to make an enlargement and re-arrangement of our kitchen and to alter over the sheds back of the stable, so that about ten automobiles can be housed under cover at one time.

A plan has been drawn for an ornamental entrance to the club grounds leading from the electric car on the Tyngsboro road. It is proposed to rebuild the stone wall, set the electric car station back of its present situation, and to plant some shrubs on both sides of the plank walk leading down to the bridge. This will make a graceful line from the road over the bridge.

The officers of the club were unanimously re-elected, as follows:
For executive committee, Alfred M. Chackwick, Edward Ellingwood, James G. Hill, Arthur J. Murkland, Thomas Neenath, Wm. T. Patton, Arthur T. Sanford, Harry E. Shaw, Andrew G. Swamp.

Secretary Swamp read the proposed changes in the by-laws, and these amendments were adopted. John A. Faulner and Julian B. Keyes were chosen auditors for the ensuing year.

Robert W. Thompson, after a glowing speech, moved that the club endorse the proposed automobile carnival for next fall. The motion was adopted.

A unanimous vote of thanks and appreciation to the officers of the club and to Mr. and Mrs. Clough was given.

Thomas Smith of East Chelmsford, is very sick at his home in upper Gorbun street, with bronchitis.

FAST RIDING

GOERKE MAKES SOME MORE RECORDS

DAYTONA, Fla., March 26.—The third day's tournament of the Daytona beach races was confined almost exclusively to motor cycle and bicycle races, there being only two automobile races, the Daytona handicap, which was run twice, a distance of four miles each. The principal feature of the day's events was the breaking of the world's record one-hour motor cycle record by Walter Goerke of Brooklyn, N. Y. (who covered 69 miles in 55 minutes 25 4-5 seconds). The former record was 65 miles, 1350 yards, made in one hour on the Brookland Cement track in England. Goerke also established a new world's record for the kilometer, covering the distance in 27 4-5 seconds. Robert Stubbs of Birmingham also lowered the world's one mile motor cycle record made yesterday by Goerke in the remarkably fast time of 43 3-5 seconds against Goerke's time of 45 1-5. The Buick team, composed of Strang, Burman, Myers and DeWitt, left today for Atlanta to enter in the hill climbing contest.

FRANK GOTCH

RETAINED HIS TITLE AS WORLD'S CHAMPION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 26.—Frank Gotch of Iowa, champion wrestler of the world, last night retained his title by defeating Raoul De Rouen of France in straight falls.

One of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed such an event in the country was present, W. D. Seville, manager of the Missouri Athletic club, which put up the $5000 purse for the match, estimated the attendance at over 10,000. The winner's purse for the night was $2000.

Both contestants were in excellent condition. Gotch, who weighed 212 pounds, was a ten to nine favorite, though De Rouen was 49 pounds heavier.

The winning fall was won with Gotch's famous toe hold. The Frenchman had allowed his shoulders to be put to the mat almost without an effort.

Gotch really won the bout in the last four rounds.

ALL LIGHTS OUT WOMAN MURDERED

Because of "Blow Out" in John Street
She Died From Effects of Carbolic Acid Poisoning

VINCENNES, Ind., March 26.—That Mrs. Russell Culbertson, who died yesterday from the effects of carbolic acid poisoning, was murdered was the general belief here today. Several neighbors reported to the police that they saw a man and woman loitering about the house of Joshua Brantleton and wife, relatives with whom the Culbertsons lived.

Miss Edna Culbertson, a sister-in-law of the dead woman, scouted the theory of suicide today and stated that she suspected a woman of causing Mrs. Russell Culbertson's death. She said: "This woman followed Mr. Culbertson everywhere he went. In my home one night before the woman I accused was married the woman I accused swore in my presence that unless Russell would marry her and not Jessie she would kill him and herself."

The husband of the dead woman is prostrated. He would not discuss the murder yesterday except to say that he is certain that the woman accused is guilty. This woman has not been located by the police, but is said to have been heard from last at Paris, Ky., about a year and a half ago. Mrs. Culbertson was found bound and gagged in the shed at the rear of the home of Joshua Brantleton late yesterday. Her arm and head were bruised as though she had struggled with assailants. After she was carried into the house she said, "A man and a woman dragged me out of the house into the shed and forced me to swallow something." Then she became unconscious and continued so until her death.

The Culbertsons were married last January. Mrs. Culbertson, formerly was Jessie Overton and came here from Texas seven years ago as a trained nurse. Last Monday when Mrs. Culbertson went to the railroad station to buy a ticket for Lawrenceville, where she visited her husband, she discovered that she was being watched by a heavy set man of middle age, who hurried to a telephone as soon as he learned of her departure. Members of the Brantleton family say they knew the house was being watched and that they notified the police and took every care not to leave Mrs. Culbertson alone. Her husband's parents supposed she was in the kitchen.

A DEMENTED MAN

Ran Barefoot Through Tewksbury Fields

Poor James Markey of 5 Cottage street, while temporarily deranged escaped from his home at an early hour this morning and caused all sorts of excitement and apprehension among residents of the Fort Hill section and in upper Tewksbury.

About 7 o'clock the police station was called up by a person who stated that a wild man had been seen running along Moore street in the direction of Lawrence street hatless and coatless with a felt boot on one foot and the other foot bare.

A few minutes later the man was reported going over Fort Hill and passing through the Lowell cemetery.

Sometime afterward Deputy Sheriff Clark of Tewksbury telephoned to the residents of that section were much alarmed by seeing what appeared to be a wild man walking hurriedly through the fields, with one foot bare and without hat or coat.

It remained for Assistant Clerk Edward Trull, of the local police court to capture the wild man. Mr. Trull had left his house in lower Andover street and was waiting for his car when Markey came along somewhat exhausted after his long and painful journey. Approaching him Mr. Trull diplomatically said, "My friend, you look as though you needed a good breakfast. I'm just going to Lowell to have mine so come along with me and we'll eat together."

Markey thanked him, saying that he was very hungry and when the car came along he boarded it without objection and was carried to Lowell. When they arrived in Merrimack square "Bat" Ryan, who is always onto his job, was there and Mr. Trull immediately introduced him to Markey and "Bat" did the rest.

"Where have you been? I've been looking everywhere for you," said "Bat," who is a master of the blarney. "I started out on that walk and I'm going to finish it as soon as I eat," said Markey.

"Why didn't you put on your other shoe?" inquired the officer.

"That was part of the bet. I made a bet that I would walk 300 miles in three hours with one shoe on and one shoe off, and according to the bet my first stop was to be at Lockmar and from there to Bandon and Bandon Centre, and then down through Kerry. "By gorry, you picked out a fine walk for yourself. That's bigger than my bet," commented "Bat" as the wagon arrived.

Markey was examined by the alienists, and it is believed that he will be all right again in a short time.

YOUNG WOMAN

LANSING, Mich., March 25.—From the humble position as stenographer in a mercantile establishment at a modest salary to the state of millionaire is a far stride, but not beyond being achieved by pretty Miss Irene Riker of this city, if all reports are true.

A portion of an estate valued at $45,000,000 left in Glasgow, Scotland, is due Miss Riker, according to advices she received recently. It is believed her share will reach $6,000,000. The estate is said to have been left by a great-uncle of Miss Riker's mother, who is said to have been a direct descendant of Sir Francis Drake, the celebrated English admiral and navigator.

For six years administrators of the estate have been tracing down the relatives and Miss Riker has received word that her claim to relationship has been established beyond doubt.

Another Tailoring Concern Fails:

The Salem store of Taylor, the Tailor, turns their goods over to me through the assignee, Mr. Neal. After a legal battle the court decides that a clear title can be given for cash. I bought their Boston store, stock and fixtures, in January, but this store had their finest goods, which they tried to retain. Every yard in stock represented a value of from $3.00 to $5.00 and sold for $25 to $40.

Imagine, if you can, a Tailoring stock of the finest turned over at the start of the season for 20 cents on the dollar and you will understand my excuse for this sale.

LECTURE ON BOYS

Interesting Talk by J. Adams Puffer

At the State Normal school yesterday J. Adams Puffer of Needham, for several years head of the Lyman school for delinquent boys, and a close student of the subject of delinquency in the young, gave an instructive talk on "A Delinquent Boy: A New Interpretation to Delinquency."

Mr. Puffer spoke in part as follows: "The new idea of preventing delinquency in boys is to take charge of them before their habits in that direction are formed. It is the state's right to take these boys from homes where influences are bad; it is the state's duty as well as its right. Many of the boys who are classed as delinquents come from homes of the poor, the ignorant, the degenerate and the criminal; from these classes they are generally taken. It is rarely indeed that they come from good homes.

"All boys pass through the delinquent stage. If the training is of the right sort and the guidance is good, they turn out to make good citizens. If the delinquency continues unchecked however, they become criminals. Somebody has said that all boys are savages at a certain age and that is about true. They must be taken in hand at that age and steered through it, as it were. The problem is the training of them through that age.

Delinquency on the Increase

"Juvenile delinquency is on the increase in America, and in every country in Europe, with the exception of England. In England prominent men and women have worked for years with the delinquents, and there delinquency is actually on the decrease. In this country the attention of G. Stanley Hall, Judge Benjamin B. Lindsey and Mr. Wines are of the opinion that delinquency is increasing in the cities. We have in America special conditions which make for an increase in delinquency. Between 60 and 70 per cent of the inmates of the larger centres are immigrants. They assimilate very, very slowly. Yet the records show no large percentage of criminals among them than it does with the native born whites. Statistics insofar as they can be obtained, are very favorable to the newcomers. The most serious condition, however, is the concentration of the evil forces in the city with no corresponding centralization of the forces for good to offset them.

"There is a great gap in our educational system. The apprentice system has gone, and nothing has been supplied to take its place. The boy between 14 and 17 years of age is idle generally, and when he does work he is often a detriment by lowering the decent wage of the laboring man. This phase of the situation presents an enormous problem, too.

"The first instinct of delinquency is activity. Wise provision for healthy play is not made. The activity of the boy filters out through channels of mischief. A part of his activity is displayed in the boy's migrations, which set in at the period of adolescence. He desires to go and see all of the things he hears about. If he can't go without taking something which belongs to somebody else he takes it. The fact that he wants to go is sufficient justification in his mind for his theft. Then begins his habits of stealing.

The Stealing Instinct

"Seventy-five per cent of the boys in reformatories are sent there for larceny. It is probably true that the stealing instinct in boys at this age is stronger than at any other time during a life. When one is aware of the prevalence of theft in business that it has been taught as a fine art we need not marvel or be surprised to find it so marked in boy life.

"But, after all, a boy has the instinct of loyalty, and this can be used to train him through the period of his savage instincts. He can develop this instinct and will develop it, if carefully trained. William R. George and Judge Lindsey have had much success in appealing to this instinct in boys.

"The social forces which are thrown around boys contribute in no small measure to their habits of delinquency. About 50 per cent of the boys in reformatories are totally or partially orphaned. When the father is dead the mother generally is forced to go out to work. The boy is neglected, unless some other relative can step in. But where he is neglected he gets into the streets and there mingles with other boys of his kind. Or, perhaps, he goes to work before his character has formed into any strength. The death rate in a city of Lowell's size is about 20 per 1000. The death rate among parents, between the ages of 20 and 40 or 45, is about 10 per 1000 families. In 15 years 150 mothers and 150 fathers have died. That makes a total of 300 parents per 1000 families in a period of 15 years. In some cases both parents have gone. Perhaps in 50 of these cases the boy is without a parent. So, if you figure it out, one boy in every four among your scholars has either lost one or both parents. In the Lyman school there were, one year, 11 boys out of 100 who were totally orphaned. Forty-seven of the remaining 89 had one or two bad parents. Twenty-four per cent of these parents, father and mother, were drunkards, and 14 per cent of them had drunken mothers. Twenty-three of the boys had decent parents, mild you. I said that twenty-seven of the boys, however, had vicious training. It isn't any wonder that so many good boys get into the delinquent class.

"Once took one of these good boys, about whom had influences had been thrown into my home. I thought I would teach him to work. So I suggested that he should work nearby. I wasn't saved and split. I said I would kindly fit up this wood. I gave him a saw and a saw horse, and then I watched. He took the smallest stick of wood in the pile, and began sawing on the smallest end of it. I told him to take the biggest stick. In the pile first and to begin sawing at the biggest end. The training of that boy had been bad all the way through. At the end of a year I had him trained fairly well."

FINE PROGRAM AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL HALL.

Despite the inclement weather there was a very large attendance and those who braved the storm were fully repaid for their trouble, for the program was varied and the numbers well rendered.

Frank J. McCormick, president of the society, made the introductory remarks after which the first number on the program, "The Harp" was given. This was followed by "In the Golden Long Ago" (Music), sung by Mrs. Mabel Lee Miller. Len Galloway, an excellent ventriloquist, gave a portion of BOSTON, March 25.—The New England Street Railway club, which includes in its membership officials of every street railway in the New England states, held its ninth annual banquet at Hotel Somerset last night.

Arthur B. Chapin, the state treasurer, represented the commonwealth in the list of after-dinner speakers. Others who addressed the gathering were James F. Shaw, president of the American Street and Interurban Railway association; P. E. Sullivan, president of the Old Colony and Boston & Northern street railways; W. D. Wright of Providence, R. I., the newly elected president of the club, and D. L. Pondcrast of Boston, who acted as toastmaster. President Wright, in his opening speech, said the club now numbers 137 members.

The election of officers at the business meeting held before the banquet resulted as follows:

President, W. D. Wright, Providence, R. I.
Vice presidents, C. H. Hile, Boston; Calvert Townley, New Haven, Conn.; J. Brodie Smith, Manchester, N. H.; P. H. Fodie, St. Albans, Vt.; E. A. Newman, Portland, Me.; M. H. Bronson, Providence, R. I.

Secretary, John J. Lane, Boston.

Promoter Coffroth of California announces that he will not give any guarantee for a bout between Johnson and Jeffries. The best he will do is to let them fight on a percentage basis.

The manager of the National club of Philadelphia announces that he has matched Jimmy Walsh and Young Pierce to box next Saturday night. Sam Langford and John Wille will meet at the same club April 2.

Sam Langford has been secured by the Marathon A. C., Brooklyn, for next Monday night and will have as an opponent Morris Harris. Langford met Harris on one occasion for 15 rounds and the battle was a draw.

Offers from southern states do not interest Johnson as he does not like to fight there. "If I beat a white man down there I doubt whether I would be able to get out of the ring alive," says Johnson.

"I was born and raised in the south, but prefer not to fight there. If they put up the money and sign articles with the other party, then I suppose I will have to fight."

Jack Johnson in evading a match with Ketchel by using Langford's name makes the fans think he is afraid to meet Langford. At the conference and also plans to enter the Marathon

Chicago the other night Johnson declared he was Langford's manager and offered to back Langford for $5000 against Ketchel. Langford does not want Johnson for a manager or any of his kind. He wants Johnson to go to England and meet him, as he agreed to do.

BILLERICA NEWS

Hot Time Expected at Town Meeting

The annual meeting and election of officers of the town of Billerica will be held tomorrow at the town hall in the center, and if the cat-and-dog interest taken in the affair during the past few days can be taken as a criterion the meeting will prove to be one of the most interesting in the history of the town. There are many warm contests for the various executive offices and several of the articles in the warrant are sure to provoke warm discussion. The meeting will be opened by Moderator Charles K. Kohnsach at 6:30 o'clock in the morning and after the election officers are sworn in by the town clerk a motion will be in order that a recess be taken until 9:30 or 10 o'clock, the polls to remain open during the recess.

The principal fight on is for the election of three members of the board of selectmen. There are seven candidates for the positions, namely: Francis A. D. Singh, Harry G. Sheldon, John J. Mahoney, John Brown, William F. Maynard, Herbert S. Russell and C. W. Wright. With the exception of Wright and Singh, who reside in Billerica Center, the candidates are all residents of the North Village.

Messrs. Singh, Sheldon and Mahoney will probably be re-elected, though some of the rail birds are predicting that Singh will be dropped, while Mahoney will be the only member of the present board to be re-elected.

Shortly after the board organized last year, Messrs. Singh and Sheldon began to feud. Mr. Mahoney and throughout the entire year it could just as well have been a two-man fight so far as Mr. Mahoney was concerned, but at various times he succeeded in making his presence known, which led to the discontinuance of the ac-crude methods of the other two members.

Mr. Mahoney is a clean cut, popular and hard working young man, and deeply interested in the welfare of the town.

F. A. D. Singh, the chairman of the present board, was second highest man last year, and while it is felt by the conservative citizens that he will be re-elected there is a certain faction which has been dubbed the "Twombly club" that it is said is working against his re-election.

John Brown, who has been chairman of the republican town committee, is a new man in the field for selectman, and it is considered that he has a fighting chance to land one of the positions.

Herbert S. Russell, a tower man at the North Billerica tower, has been a resident of the town for a little over ten years and went into the fight without making any political promises and it is expected that he will be free from all political commitments.

Francis J. Cook, who has been an assessor for a number of years, and is a popular man, has decided to retire from that office, and there are four candidates for the position: John J. Nantel, Albert H. Jones and James A. Smith. Jones is considered the pole horse.

The candidates for overseers of the poor are Messrs. William Casey, Richard J. Conway, Segars J. Cook, and C. W. Wright. The last three named are overseers at the present time and Mr. Casey is trying to displace one of them.

There is little or no fight on for town treasurer. Herbert A. King has held the office for a number of years and it is a foregone conclusion that he will be re-elected. Thomas M. Clark is an annual candidate for some position and is not seriously considered.

There is no opposition to Mr. King as town clerk. Neither is there any opposition to Everett S. Bull, candidate for collector of taxes.

There is a keen contest on for the office of surveyor of highways. Harry W. Essex is the present incumbent and he is opposed by John F. Finnegan.

There are three candidates for the two positions as constables of the town. Martin Conway and Everett W. Livingston are at present the constables and their efficient work during the number of years they have had charge of the police of the town reflects great credit on the town. Charles H. Kemp, who is a candidate against them, will undoubtedly meet with defeat at the polls.

Martin Conway is known to all the police chiefs in Massachusetts and a survey officer who is competent to be chief of the police department of a large city.

Joseph P. Meaney, Nat H. Hutchins and Charles J. Miller are the candidates for the school committee. Mr. Meaney is at present a member of the committee, and Mr. Hutchins is putting up a stiff battle to secure his position.

Francis J. Dolan, who is tree warden at the present time and a candidate for re-election is opposed by George H. Conroy. Conroy ran against Dolan last year and was defeated by 50 votes.

One of the most important matters to come before the attention of the selectmen of the town is a report from the committee appointed at a special meeting to examine the selectmen's report on the tax collection of Victoria J. Hosmer and report the same at tomorrow's meeting. The committee is composed of J. N. Parker, F. S. Clark and Nat H. Jones.

Mr. Hosmer was a former collector of the town. He came to the office four years ago, and last year started out to collect something less than $8000, which had remained uncollected. According to the town treasurer's report Mr. Hosmer turned over $7,822.21 and it is expected that the committee will report favorably.

Article 24. To see if the town will raise and appropriate the sum of $500 for the building of the Bridge road bridge, to provide a spirited discussion between Roger Barrington and Delacy Corkum.

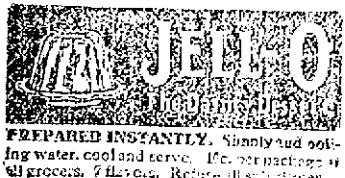

Last year there was an article in the warrant calling for $700 for the repair of the road and the discussion that followed came near ending in a free-for-all fight, though finally $200 was voted.

Roger Barrington, who fathered the article relative to the Bridge road last year and who is also instrumental in having the article in the warrant this year, owns a camp on the Bridge road. Delacy Corkum, who leases land on the opposite side of the river spoke against the article.

The discussion got so hot that the fire was passed and after Mr. Barrington had intimated that he had seen Mr. Corkum standing up against a barn drinking, Corkum unloosed his pent up wrath and delivered a reply that will go down in the history of the town as the most hard piece of eloquence ever aired in Billerica.

The list of estimates this year totals $12,855.00. The expenditures last year were $26,283.00.

Money deposited this week at the Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank begins to draw interest April 3.

GLADSTONE CLUB

Daly and Wright in a Busy Bout

Despite the bad weather, a large number of the members of the Gladstone club attended the regular meeting last evening when Andy Daly of Portland, Me. and Young Wright from the Army Club, Boston were the star attraction. Since the last meeting five escapes have been added to the building and extinguishers placed about the walls while the entrances have been enlarged and the work of putting in additional ventilators has begun. Daly is an old timer at the club, being a member since 1891, and an exceedingly clever boxer. Wright is young and coming, but not as scientific or as good a ring general as Daly. The pair went at it for leaps with something doing all the time. Daly showed his famous right hand to fine advantage. Wright was willing and could take all that came his way without wincing. The referee called it a draw and the members were satisfied with the decision though had he given it to Daly there would have been no kick coming, as the Portland boy had a slight advantage.

The preliminaries did not pan out as well as usual, though that is likely to happen in the best regulated of fights. Jackey Brade who used to do some stunts with the gloves started in for a four round engagement with Young Moran a pupil of Martin Flaherty's and Moran proved to be quite a pupil. Moran handed it to Jackey so convincingly that the latter didn't have any room for more and took the count in the fourth round.

Young Lewis, who was to have boxed Bob Smith, did not put in an appearance and Bill O'Regan substituted for him. Once upon a time Bill O' was a bit of a boxer, but that was some time ago. Bill O' took the gaff for two rounds and then lay down to pleasant dreams.

Young Matvey and Puck Critien exchanged blows for four rounds in an entertaining manner with heavy even. But the main bout was the best thing and well worth the trip in the storm.

HYOMEI (PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND) the most reliable cure for Catarrh

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers they depended upon medicines made from the roots and herbs of the field to cure disease.

Today Dr. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that standard remedy which is made from roots and herbs for woman's use, has its origin in this way. For thirty years it has been recommended its promises written on the label of every bottle by curing thousands of women of feminine ills. It's a good, honest medicine.

Hyomei cures by killing the cause—the catarrh germ. It is a pleasant, antiseptic, a product of the Australian forests of pine and eucalyptus, where catarrh or consumption never known to exist. Catarrh is Sherrill's Hyomei, and guarantee it to cure catarrh, asthma, hay fever, eczema, bronchitis, coughs and colds, or money back if it fails to cure only $1. Extra bottles 50c.

TURNED ON GAS

Mrs. Lorillard Tired of Society Life

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Weary of the gay whirl of society and face to face, as she believed, with years of physical suffering, Mrs. Caroline Hamilton Lorillard, aged 49, wife of Pierre Lorillard, Jr., the tobacco magnate, committed suicide by asphyxiation at her home near the fashionable Dupont circle in this city yesterday.

Her tragic death has shocked the first social circles of the capital as nothing else in years. Last night the members of the Lorillard family, famous because of its wealth, are gathering here to mourn over the unexpected blow.

The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been the guests of Mrs. Richard Townsend on Massachusetts avenue, at a dinner given in honor of Lady Paget. In fact, it is believed that as soon as Mrs. Lorillard arrived at her home at 2553 Hill-top place, shortly after midnight yesterday morning, she began to prepare for her death.

About 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning the butler in the Lorillard house detected an odor of gas, and the origin of the fumes was traced to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments. Opening the door of the bathroom off of her suite the butler found the body of the mistress of the house stretched out lifeless on the floor.

Coroner Says Suicide

The alarm given by the butler brought Mr. Lorillard from his apartments across the hall and together they carried the body to her room. The servant was sent for a doctor, while Mr. Lorillard attempted to revive his wife by means of artificial respiration. Dr. M. F. Cuthbert, the family physician, arrived about the same time that Dr. H. E. Deale was admitted to the residence. Both resorted to every scientific method within their power to restore life, but after an hour's effort gave up in despair.

A telegram was received in this city Wednesday, announcing the serious illness of Mrs. John Harlan of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Harlan was formerly Miss Elizabeth Kelley of this city and Mr. Harlan at one time was instructor in golf at the Vesper-Country club.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Vesper-Country Club
Held Last Evening

It was a rough night on the coast, yet 75 members of the Vesper-Country club took a chance on the suspension bridge at Tana's Island and attended the annual meeting of the club, last evening.

The elements interfered materially with the size of the attendance, but not with the good spirits of those who did attend. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by Supr. P. L. Clough and Deane's orchestra furnished music. There was singing by Andrew G. Swapp, Robert W. Thompson, Harry G. Pollard, William H. Patton, Edward Ellingsworth, Fred Howard and others. At 8 o'clock President A. M. Chadwick called to order and Supr. A. G. Swapp read the records of the last annual meeting.

Treasurer's Report
Treasurer Arthur J. Murchland read a very complete and interesting report showing that the club has made considerable financial gain during the year. The comparison with last year shows that the new bridge has added greatly to the receipts of the island club house. The total of sales for the club house for the past season is $25,915, as against $18,512 for the previous season, showing a gain for the year of $7,403.

The receipts from the turnstiles on the bridge total $676.11, while the expenses of carrying it on and paying for interest on the bonds was $236.03 less than the receipts, proving that the bridge is a self-supporting affair. The bridge cost $7447.11, which was paid for by an issue of bonds to the amount of $7000 and the balance of $447.11 was paid out of the regular account. Of the bonds $1000 has already been redeemed, so that the bridge now stands the club at the figure of $6000. A new float and a new ice house were built and large sums were expended on the golf links. The general expenses at the Country club house totaled $12,553.66, and at the boat house, $852.00, making the grand total expense $15,405.66. Added to this are the depreciation figures, given as $3350 on the buildings, $750 on the furniture, $1447.41 on the bridge, $190 on personal property at the boat house and bad debts of $23.58, making the total charged to the expense account $4477.39. But the total receipts were $21,631.24, leaving a balance of $165.16 for the profit and loss account.

The assets of the club are figured at $43,572.73 and the gross liabilities at $32,234.51. These liabilities may be reduced by quick assets figured at $3579.73, leaving a net liability of $25,715.08.

The restaurant department made a profit of $154.45, an unusual result for the club restaurant. The stable department showed a loss of $418.10 and the loss in the golf department was $321.00. The green committee department paid out $2004.54 as against net receipts.

The club department showed a profit of $515.25 and the tennis and water department made a profit of $294.56. The rooms at the island club house showed a profit of $243.85 and the camp showed a balance of $1134.04.

Andrew G. Swapp read an interesting report as secretary, covering the club's activities for the past year, discussing the future, the report reads as follows:

"The giving up of the boat house as a part of the club sports, the fact that the building is old and will need serious repairs; the need of a proper automobile house; the fact that the rooms in the present house have not been adequate on a number of occasions to accommodate all who desire to stop at the island; the need of a hall to seat about 400 people for club affairs, such as the annual meeting, ladies' day, team golf dinners, large private parties, and which can also be used for dancing, brings a serious proposition before your executive committee. In considering this matter early in the year the president appointed a committee of permanent improvements, with the view of laying out a general club plan, which will be needed during the next ten years. This committee on permanent improvements has given this matter careful consideration and at the present time has three architects drawing plans for new club buildings. It is not the intention of your committee to do anything in this line the coming year, but it was thought best by it that before any changes were made a thoroughly well-considered plan should be adopted to be followed out as fast as the club was able financially to do so.

"It is, however, the intention of your committee the coming year to build a new boat house to accommodate the club boats, canoes and a few private canoes, on the flats in the creek just inside of the river near the club house. We are also compelled on account of the increased business to make an enlargement and re-arrangement of our kitchen and to move over the sheds back of the stable, so that about ten automobiles can be housed under cover at one time.

"A plan has been drawn for an ornamental entrance to the club grounds leading from the electric car on the Tynsboro road. It is proposed to rebuild the stone wall, set the electric car station back at its present location, and to plant some shrubs on both sides of the plank walk leading down to the bridge. This will make a straight line from the road over the bridge."

The officers of the club were unanimously re-elected as follows:

For executive committee, Alfred M. Chadwick, Edward Ellingsworth, James G. Hill, Arthur J. Murchland, Thomas Nesmith, Win. T. Patton, Arthur T. Safford, Harry E. Shaw, Andrew G. Swapp.

Secretary Swapp read the proposed changes in the by-laws, and these amendments were adopted. John A. Paulkner and Arthur E. Hayes were chosen auditors for the ensuing year.

Robert W. Thomson, after a glowing speech, moved that the club endorse the proposed automobile carnival for next fall. The motion was adopted. A unanimous vote of thanks and appreciation to the officers of the club and to Mr. and Mrs. Clough was given.

Thomas Smith of East Chelmsford, is very sick at his home in upper Gorbani street, with bronchitis.

Morningstar played safely all through the early innings, but toward the end of the game he gave a fine exhibition of open table work as well as intricate musing.

GOERKE MAKES SOME MORE RECORDS

DAYTONA, Fla., March 26.—The third day's tournament of the Daytona beach races was confined almost exclusively to motor cycle and bicycle races, there being only two automobile races, the Daytona handicap, which was run twice, a distance of four miles each. The principal feature of the day's events was the breaking of the world's record one-hour motor cycle record by Walter Goerke of Brooklyn, N. Y. (who covered 60 miles in 58 minutes 25 4-5 seconds). The former record was 58 miles, 1390 yards, made in one hour on the Brookland Cement track in England. Goerke also established a new world's record for the kilometer, covering the distance in 27 4-5 seconds. Robert Stubbs of Birmingham, also lowered the world's one mile motor cycle record made yesterday by Goerke in the remarkably fast time of 43 2-5 seconds against Goerke's time of 45 1-5. The quick team, composed of Strang,

FRANK GOTCH

RETAINED HIS TITLE AS WORLD'S CHAMPION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 26.—Frank Gotch of Iowa, champion wrestler of the world, last night retained his title by defeating Raoul De Rouen of France in straight falls.

One of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed such an event in the country was present. W. D. Scoville, manager of the Missouri Athletic Club, which put up the $5000 purse for the match, estimated the attendance at over 10,000. The winner's end of the purse was $5000.

Both contestants were in excellent condition. Gotch, who weighs 215 pounds, was a ten to nine favorite, though De Rouen was 40 pounds heavier.

The winning fall was won with Gotch's famous toe hold. The Frenchman had allowed his shoulders to be put to the mat almost without an effort.

Gotch really won the bout in the last four rounds.

He fell when he so weakened his opponent, with the toe hold that De Rouen did not care to repeat the experience in the second fall. The time for the falls was 24.45, and 13 minutes, flat, respectively.

FOUGHT A DRAW

NEW YORK, March 26.—Young Corbett and Bert Keyes met here last night in a fast 10 round bout. Corbett won a draw by excellent work in the last four rounds.

6 O'CLOCK SHE IS IDENTIFIED

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—The Leader this morning says:

The woman known to the police as Mrs. James Boyle and believed to be the brains behind the kidnapping of Billy Whittla, was identified yesterday by a Cleveland vessel owner as Anna McDermott. She was born in Chicago. Her father is a well known business man there and she has a brother who is a banker. She was educated in a convent.

Three years ago she disappeared from home. Since then her family has been in ignorance of her whereabouts.

She is 22 years old. The vessel owner's half sister is the girl's mother. A sister of the woman visited her a short time ago.

CROWD HOOTED

WHEN ALLEGED KIDNAPERS WERE TAKEN TO TRAIN

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—With hoots and jeers ringing in their ears, James H. Boyle and his wife, arrested here as the kidnapers of little Willie Whittla of Sharon, Pa., were escorted by police to an Erie train just before it left at 5:35 last night for Macon, Pa.

This practically closes the case as far as Cleveland is concerned, as further action will be taken by the Pennsylvania authorities. However, the Cleveland police have a club over the heads of the Boyles in a joint indictment returned yesterday charging James H. Boyle and Helene Boyle, alias Faulkner, with blackmail. This charge is based on the payment of $10,000 ransom by J. P. Whittla for the recovery of his son Willie, here, last Monday. This indictment will be used by the local officials in the event that the case in Pennsylvania fails of conviction.

Sheriff William Chubb of Mercer county, Pa., and Chief of Police Crane of Sharon, arrived here yesterday and immediately organized proceedings for the return of the prisoners.

The Cuyahoga county officials waived their rights to the Boyles and the latter informed Chief Kohler that they would not fight extradition to the Keystone state.

A few minutes before the train left the station the couple were hurried from central police station to the detention hall where the prisoners, aligned from the wagon a great throng surged about them and it was with much difficulty that a path was cleared to the coaches. As Boyle and his wife, each accompanied by two patrolmen, walked through the train station the crowd greeted them with hoots and jeers.

Boyle had nothing to do with the actual kidnapping of Willie Whittla, according to the statement made yesterday by the woman and her husband. Police Prosecutor Daniel Cull was in conversation with the Boyles, and the latter said that although he expected to be "railroaded" when tried in Pennsylvania, there is absolutely no way to connect his wife with any offense committed in that state.

To the Associated Press Mrs. Boyle said she first saw "Billy" here in Cleveland and that she "had nothing to do with the other part of the case."

Mrs. Boyle apparently was in good spirits, but her husband maintained his indifferent manner, having little to say. Most of the questions asked were addressed to Mrs. Boyle, and all eyes in the small circle of listeners gazed at the attractive woman.

"Why don't someone look at Mr. Boyle?" asked Chief Kohler.

"He is not so charming," came the quick reply from Mrs. Boyle.

Then the man prisoner caused a general laugh by paying his wife this compliment:

"Mrs. Boyle has three leather medals from men who are being charmed."

Mrs. Boyle denied that she is Helen Faulkner and declared emphatically that she had never been on the stage. "But maybe I'll get a chance now," she added merrily.

Mrs. Boyle also denied that she is in any way related to the Whittla family. She had never been in Cleveland before, but when asked if she had been in Sharon, a smile at her husband was the only answer.

"What did you think of Billy?" Mrs. Boyle was asked.

"He is a dear child, and I really hated to part with him," she said.

To Chief Kohler, Mrs. Boyle said she was born and reared in Chicago and that her father is a resident of that city.

The last doubt as to the identity of Boyle was removed yesterday when Thomas F. Boyle of Sharon called at the police station and said the prisoner is his brother.

THE OFFICERS

FEARED FOR SAFETY OF PRISONERS

PITTSBURGH, March 26.—Fearing for the safety of their prisoners if they were taken to Sharon or the county seat at Mercer, officers last night brought James H. Boyle and his wife, accused of kidnapping Willie Whittla, to the Allegheny county jail here. They were brought here in a special Pullman car from Cleveland. The prisoners were guarded by 15 detectives and officers.

The car was kept securely locked and no one was granted admission to the car except an Associated Press man and a few other newspapermen, who boarded the train at Youngstown.

It was the unanimous opinion of the officers engaged on the case that it would be safer not to take any chances by exposing their prisoners to the wrath of the Sharon populace.

On the arrival at the jail Mrs. Boyle looked around and said: "This looks a little better than Cleveland anyway."

It is the intention of the officers to keep their prisoners in the jail here for several days and at some time when the public is not expecting it, to remove them to the Mercer county jail, where they will be kept till the grand jury convenes the third week in April.

STIFF SENTENCES

Given Out in Police Court Today

Daniel Downey, of Tewksbury, was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on John Grant, an employee of the state hospital at Tewksbury. According to the testimony offered during the course of the trial Grant and Downey got into an argument on a Boston-bound electric car last Saturday night.

A battle of words ensued and Grant instead of getting off the car at Tewksbury Centre, as was his custom, went on to Foster's corner where Downey usually got off to go to his home, and the two men met. Grant struck Downey and the latter drew a knife and slashed Grant.

Grant was removed to St. John's hospital but when one of the local officers went over to the hospital to serve a summons on him it was found that he had left the hospital and his whereabouts at the present time is unknown.

This morning the case had progressed for some time before Judge Hadley was aware that the assaulted man was not present and after the government's case had been presented he ordered the case continued for one week in order that Grant might be brought into court.

Melvin M. Rogers appeared for the town of Tewksbury and Downey was represented by J. Joseph Hennessy.

John S. Crossman, a civil engineer, saw Downey and Grant on the electric car that left Lowell at 11:15 o'clock last Saturday night and for Foster's corner about three miles below Tewksbury Centre. He said that the two men were arguing on the car and later heard them talking about fight. Both men had been drinking. Grant lives in Tewksbury Centre, but instead of getting off the car at the Centre he continued on to Foster's corner.

Continuing witness said: "When I got off the car at Foster's corner Grant came around to the back of the car and said: 'I have a revolver and will shoot any man who strikes me.' I told Grant that if he had a revolver he had better keep it in his pocket."

Downey then came around to the back of the car and he and Grant met. They started to argue and I tried to prevent them fighting. Some person pulled me away and then I saw Grant strike Downey. Downey jacked Grant and then I heard someone shout: 'Downey has got a knife.' While I was trying to get the knife away from Downey someone kicked him in the face. When Grant got up I saw that he was covered with blood and was out in several places."

William E. Briggs, of Tewksbury, who was on the car, testified to a battle of words between the two men on the car and heard Grant try to have Downey get off the car at Wamesit and have it out there, but Downey did not want to get out there.

Several other witnesses corroborated the statement offered by Messrs. Crossman and Briggs.

At this point it was found that John Grant, the man who had been stabbed, was not present in court. Judge Hadley wanted to know why the case had gone on when the assaulted man was not present. It was stated that after the assault Grant went to St. John's hospital, but when an officer was sent to summon him it was found that he had left the hospital and his whereabouts at the present time is unknown.

The case was continued for one week.

Assault and Battery

George Malloras and Spyros Farfalaris, charged with assault and battery on Gregorios Vasilis on March 15th, pleaded not guilty to their crime and counsel, James E. O'Donnell, A. O. Hamel appeared for the government.

Gregorios Vasilis is employed as a bobbin boy at the Merrimack mills and while returning from work about six o'clock on the night of March 15 he claims he was met near the corner of Dutton and Merrimack streets by the defendants and the latter struck him with clubs.

Several witnesses testified for the defense, but the defendants were found guilty and each ordered to pay a fine of $20 in three days or be committed to jail for two months.

Placed on File

The case of Joseph Blood, charged with receiving stolen property, charged up on continuance. He pleaded guilty and the case was placed on file.

A couple of weeks ago the tailor shop of George V. Gregg in the Spaulding block, corner of Central and Prescott streets, was entered and an overcoat and several suit patterns stolen. One of the men who made the break sold ten yards of the cloth stolen to Blood, the latter paying 50 cents for the cloth which was valued at $12.50.

Robbins Defaulted

The case of Gardner F. Robbins, charged with concealing mortgaged property, was scheduled for trial this morning, but Robbins was not present. A capias was issued for his arrest.

Violated Probation

William Toy was under a suspended sentence of four months in jail, but he violated the terms of his probation, was surrendered, and this morning in court the suspension was revoked. He appeared from the court's sentence and was held under $500 bonds for the superior court.

Third Offenders

It was the third appearance within three months for Francis J. Cullen. For the next four months he will make his headquarters at the Lowell jail.

Joseph Cullen promised to do better in the future and the court decided to give him a chance. He was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail and placed on probation for one year.

Carr Up Against It

James Carr "blew in" from Woodsville, N. H., a few days ago, and got touched for a roll of money. Yesterday he was released by the probation officer, but had been free but a few hours when he was again arrested for drunkenness. He will spend the next ten days in jail.

Other Drunken Offenders

John Olson said he would go right out and go to work if he was released by the court, but he will not have a chance to go to his work until he has paid a fine of $5.

Elzear Ferron, a second offender, was fined $3.

Three first offenders were fined $2 each and six simple drunks were released.

AT ST. PETER'S

HOLY NAME SOCIETY HOLDS INTERESTING SESSION

In the Fair hall the members of the Holy Name society of St. Peter's church held their regular meeting last night, and in spite of the inclement weather, there was a large attendance. President William F. Daly presided. The meeting was an interesting session.

The society voted to hold a requiem mass on Patriots' day for the deceased members of the society, and it is planned to have the members attend in a body.

The society also extended a vote of thanks to D. J. Donahue for his splendid address on "Character," which he delivered at the "smoker" of the society on the night of March 17.

Plans for the communion breakfast were completed.

Remarks for the good and welfare were made by Pres. Daly, Daniel Reilly, Michael McGinnis, John King, Wm. F. Boyle, Daniel Toomey, Michael H. McDonough, Hugh A. McDermott, John A. Quinn and Secretary Ward.

The next meeting will be held on April 8th. The communion Sunday of the society is Palm Sunday and a big attendance is anticipated.

The society continues to prosper and under the guidance of Pres. Daly will doubtless make this year an eventful one in its history.

Sealed bids are called for—

A DEMENTED MAN

Ran Barefoot Through Tewksbury Fields

Poor James Markey of 5 Cottage street, while temporarily deranged escaped from his home at an early hour this morning and caused all sorts of excitement and apprehension among residents of the Fort Hill section and in upper Tewksbury.

About 7 o'clock the police station was called up by a person who stated that a wild man had been seen running along Moore street in the direction of Lawrence street hatless and coatless with a felt boot on one foot and the other foot bare.

A few minutes later the man was reported going over Fort Hill and passing through the Lowell cemetery. Sometime afterward Deputy Sheriff Clark of Tewksbury telephoned in that the residents of that section were much alarmed by seeing what appeared to be a wild man walking hurriedly through the fields, with one foot bare and the other foot in a shoe.

and without hat or coat. It remained for Assistant Clerk Edward Trull, of the local police court, to capture the wild man. Mr. Trull had left his house in lower Andover street and was waiting for his car when Markey came along somewhat exhausted after his long and painful journey. Approaching him Mr. Trull diplomatically said, "My friend, you look as though you needed a good breakfast. I'm just going to Lowell to have mine so come along with me and we'll eat together."

Markey thanked him, saying that he was very hungry and when the car came along he boarded it without objection and was carried to Lowell. When they arrived in Merrimack Square "Bat" Ryan, who is always on his job, was there and Mr. Trull immediately introduced him to Markey, and "Bat" did the rest.

"Where have you been? I've been looking everywhere for you," said "Bat," who is a master of the barney.

"I started out on that walk and I'm going to finish it as soon as I eat," said Markey.

"Why didn't you put on your other shoe?" inquired the officer.

"That was part of the bet. I made a bet that I would walk 300 miles in three hours with one shoe on and one off, and according to the bet my first stop was to be at Lockmar and from there to Bandon and Bandon Centre, and then down through Kerry." "By gorry, you picked out a fine walk for yourself. That's bigger than my bet," commented "Bat" as the wagon arrived.

YOUNG WOMAN

LANSING, Mich., March 26.—From the humble position as stenographer in a mercantile establishment at a modest salary to the state of millionairess is a far stride, but not beyond being achieved by pretty Miss Ione Rikerd of this city. If all reports are true.

A portion of an estate valued at $45,000,000 left in Glasgow, Scotland, is due Miss Rikerd, according to advices she received recently. It is believed her share will reach $6,000,000. The estate is said to have been left by a great-uncle of Miss Rikerd's mother, who is said to have been a direct descendant of Sir Francis Drake, the celebrated English admiral and navigator.

For six years administrators of the estate have been tracing down the relatives and Miss Rikerd has received word that her claim to relationship has been established beyond doubt.

Fact Number Two About

A FIVE DOLLAR BILL

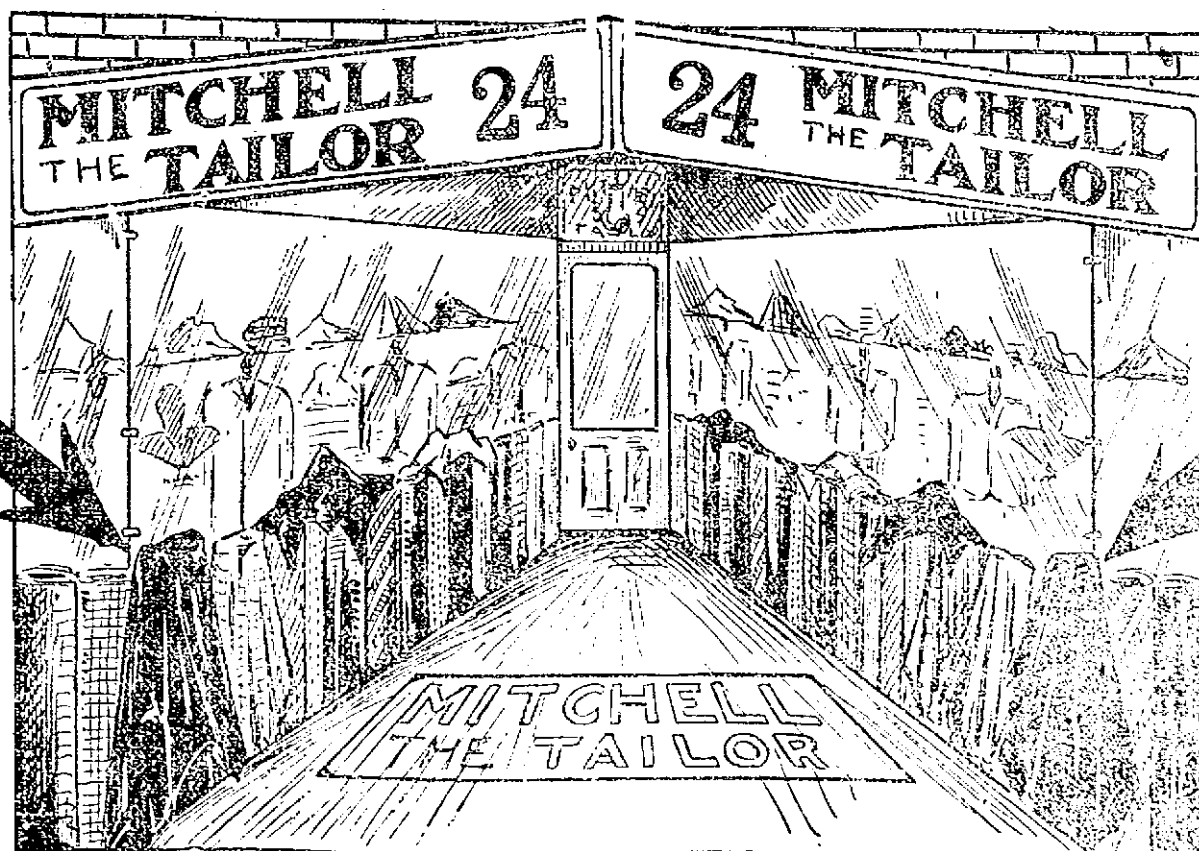

Now that Easter approaches, no doubt you are thinking of a new suit. The question is, where to get that new suit. We are not going to say come to this store and buy it. What we do say is, look around in other stores, see what they offer you at $15, $18 and $20, and before you finally decide on a purchase call at this store and examine our fine worsted suits at $9.95, $11.95 and $14.95. Just as sure as night follows the day you will find that if you buy here you will save a five dollar bill.

TAUNTON CASE

Against License Board
Goes to Higher Court

TAUNTON, March 26.—About the only thing of interest which has developed in the protracted hearings on the charges preferred by Mayor Edgar L. Crossman against Chairman John Welch and Charles G. Washburn of the board of license commissioners came at the opening of yesterday morning's session, when City Solicitor Hathaway, representing the prosecution, stated that an agreement had been made by John B. Tracy and William J. Williams, ex-Mayor of Taunton, representing the two commissioners, and Joseph E. Warner and himself of the prosecution. It is for the protection of the business in 1910 in case the mayor, after a consideration of the evidence, should find cause for the removal of one or both of the commissioners. It is agreed that he shall make no appointment to fill the vacancies until after the court has given a finding on a review of the evidence. On the part of the present commissioners it is also agreed that the board shall not grant any licenses until after the court's ruling.

Counsel on both sides also agree to obtain as speedy a hearing as possible in any court in the county, with reservations on both sides as to the justices. Both Mayor Crossman and Commissioners Welch and Washburn went on record as assenting to the agreement. This disposal of rumors that the present license commission would grant licenses before the hearing was ended and that any new commissioners who might be appointed by the mayor would also grant before the ruling of the courts on the matter.

AN ELOPEMENT

Was Broken Up by the Police

WORCESTER, Mar. 26.—Miss Rose Boisvert, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Boisvert of Manchester, N. H., spent last night in a cell in the local police headquarters instead of being with her intended husband, Isador Robert of 10 Warren street, Worcester, with whom she ran away from her Manchester home yesterday forenoon, after an acquaintance of only a week. She is held as a runaway at the request of the Manchester police, who took her home today.

Miss Boisvert and Robert were arrested in the office of City Clerk Towne yesterday afternoon as they were trying to procure a marriage license. It was to be Robert's second trip on the sea of matrimony. He works for a local piano company, but last week he hurt his hand and had to lay off and he took advantage of the opportunity to make a visit to Manchester.

He fell in with the Boisvert family and spent in their house on a chair one night. The next day he met Rose. He made love rapidly, and finally got the girl's consent to come to Worcester to become his wife. When Mrs. Boisvert learned of the approaching marriage she refused to give her consent, but the lovers planned an elopement.

By a prearranged plan the couple came to Worcester yesterday morning. The local police were notified to arrest the girl as a runaway.

ANKLES BROKEN

POWERS JUMPED FROM STEEPLE OF CHURCH

WENDELL, March 26.—Jesse Powers, 25, while suffering from melancholia, jumped from the steeple of the Congregational church yesterday afternoon to the hard ground below a distance of about 75 feet. He struck on his feet and the heels of his shoes made dents in the grounds about two inches deep.

His ankles were fractured and he may prove to have severe internal injuries. He was taken to the Franklin County hospital at Greenfield and is likely to recover, it is said. He obtained the key to the church door from C. H. Cogswell, the postmaster and village merchant. Mr. Cogswell thought that Mr. Powers desired to obtain some article in the church. Powers has been in poor health for two years and has brooded over his sickness.

ORVILLE WRIGHT

TO MAKE FLIGHT IN AEROPLANE AT FORT MEYER

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Aerial flight at Fort Meyer where the government aeronautic tests were held last summer will be resumed in May. The Wright brothers are expected to arrive with their aeroplane before the first of June. Orville Wright, who was seriously injured in the wreck of his aeroplane at Fort Meyer last September, hopes to complete the official trials of the aeroplane himself. In a letter received here from France he says, "I am sufficiently recovered I will complete the demonstrations myself."

The Wrights have a contract to fulfill at Rome to which city they have gone from Pau, France. Orville Wright expresses his disappointment in his letter in not having been able to make a flight before leaving Pau. The Wrights, accompanied by their sister, Miss Katherine Wright, expect to return to America about May 1.

The aeroplane of A. M. Herring of New York is also due at Fort Meyer before June as Mr. Herring must carry out the government trials prior to June 1.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

NEW YORK, March 26.—Despite the efforts to keep their identity secret, it was learned yesterday that the donor of the $500,000 fund to the Children's Aid society of this city for the establishment of a sanitarium for crippled children, announced yesterday, is Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, wife of A. A. Anderson, the artist, and daughter of the late Jeremiah M. Bank, founder of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

IRISH MUSIC

FINE PROGRAM AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL HALL

An excellent program of Irish music was carried out last night in the Immaculate Conception school hall, under the auspices of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church. Despite the inclement weather there was a very large attendance and those who braved the storm were fully repaid for their trouble, for the program was varied and the numbers were excellent.

Frank J. McCormick, president of the society, made the introductory remarks after which the first number on the program "The Harp" was given. This was followed by "In the Hidden Land" and "O'Malley" sung by Mrs. Mabel Lee Muller. Len Galloway, an excellent ventriloquist, gave a portion of

COUPLE GIVEN SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS

NEWPORT, Vt., March 26.—Two years each in state prison was the sentence imposed upon Mr. and Mrs. East Parmelee in the Orleans county court yesterday. Mr. Parmelee pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter in having shot Ray Crozier, who had been paying attention to his wife, and Mrs. Parmelee admitted a part of a story of a statutory rape on the William W. WOMEN STRIKE

Say French Novels Are too "Racy"

BERKELEY, Cal., March 26.—Because the French novels assigned for their reading were "too racy" and "too shocking" twenty young women members of the senior class at the university of California conducted a successful strike. The young women declared that unless books that were poorer and of a much higher moral tone were given them in their class work they would abandon the course entirely inasmuch as they had decided objections at being required to read about affinities and French heroines of the "Zaza" type.

The women sent a delegation to their instructor, Prof. S. A. Chambers, and called his attention to some of the books to which they objected. The list included Balzac, Zola, DeMaupassant, the younger Dumas and Anicet. The fair complainants stated that these tales were entirely "too racy."

Prof. Chambers decided to substitute Marcelle Prevost, Anatole France, Prosper Merimee and other more staid and circumspect writers as a compromise.

CABLE CHESS MATCH
NEW YORK, March 26.—With cable exchanges of compliments play in the 11th annual cable chess match between America and Great Britain began today at the Hotel Savoy, London, and the rooms of the Brooklyn chess club here. The American team was completed and announced last night, but it was not until just before the time for beginning of play today that the names of all the contestants on the British team became known. Then it was found that four men who had been in the list of substitutes last night occupied places on the regular team today. The changes made were generally considered likely as adding to the strength of the British team.

ent are sure to provoke warm discus-

The meeting will be opened by Moderator Charles K. Kohlrausch at 6:30 o'clock in the morning and after the election officers are sworn in by the town clerk a motion will be in order that a recess be taken until 9:30 or 10 o'clock, the polls to remain open during the recess.

The principal fight on is for the election of three members of the board of selectmen. There are seven candidates for the positions, namely: Francis A. B. Singh, Harry G. Sheldon, John J. Mahoney, John Brown, William F. Maxwell, Herbert S. Russell and Chas. A. Wright. With the exception of Wright and Singh, who reside in Billerica Centre, the candidates are all residents of the North Village.

Maxwell, Singh, Sheldon and Mahoney will probably be re-elected, though some of the tall birds are predicting that Sheldon will be dropped, while radicals are of the opinion that Mahoney will be the only member of the present board to be re-elected.

Shortly after the board organized last year, Messrs. Singh and Sheldon began to ignore Mr. Mahoney and throughout almost the entire year "it might just as well have been a two-man board so far as Mr. Mahoney was concerned, but at various times he succeeded in making his presence known, much to the discomfort of the autocratic methods of the other two members.

Mr. Mahoney is a clean cut, popular and hard working young man and deeply interested in the welfare of the town.

F. A. B. Singh, the chairman of the present board, was second highest man last year, and while it is felt by the conservative citizens that he will be re-elected there is a certain faction which has been dubbed the "Two-man board" that it is felt is working again for re-election.

John Brown, who has been chairman of the republican town committee, is a new man in the field for selectman, and it is considered that he has a fighting chance to land one of the positions.

Herbert S. Russell, a tower man at the North Billerica tower, has been a resident of the town for a little over ten years and went into the fight "without making any political promises and it seemed will be free from all political entanglements."

Stearns J. Cook, who has been an assessor for a number of years, and considered the duties of the office in a capable manner, has decided to retire from that office, and there are four candidates for the position: John J. Nuttall, Albert H. Jones and James A. Smith. Jones is considered the pole horse.

The candidates for assessors of the poor are Messrs. William Parker, Richard J. Conway, Stearns J. Cook, and George S. Smith. The last three names are assessors at the present time and Mr. Casey is trying to displace one of them.

There is little or no fight on for town treasurer. Messrs. A. King has held the office for a number of years and it is a foregone conclusion that he will be re-elected. Thomas M. Clark is an unusual candidate for some position and is not seriously considered.

There is no opposition to Mr. King as town clerk. Neither is there any opposition to Everett S. Bull, candidate for collector of taxes.

There is a keen contest on for the

Cure Your Cold with Flax Seed

For many years physicians have been successfully treating Coughs, "Colds," Bronchitis and Consumption with an Emulsion of Flax Seed, called LINONINE. This is not a secret remedy, the formula being on every bottle. It is a palatable emulsion—sweetest cream—made of the oil compressed out from the finest, selected Flax Seeds and by a scientific process requiring two hours.

If you wish to know what this Flax Seed Emulsion will do, write to the makers and they will send you an order on a local drugist for a regular size package (not a mere sample) and will pay the druggist themselves for it. This is their free gift, made to let the remedy itself show you what it can do.

office of surveyor of highways. Harry W. Essex is the present incumbent and he is opposed by John P. Cunningham.

There are three candidates for the two positions as constables of the town. Martin Conway and Everett W. Livingston are at present the constables and their efficient work during the number of years they have had charge of the policing of the town reflects great credit on the town.

On the town committee, Charles H. Kemps, who is a candidate against them, will undoubtedly meet with defeat at the polls.

Martin Conway is known to all the police chiefs in Massachusetts as a shrewd officer who is competent to be chief of the police department of a large city.

Joseph P. Meaney, Natl. H. Hutchins and Charles J. Miller are the candidates for the school committee. Mr. Meaney is at present a member of the committee, and Mr. Hutchins is putting up a stiff battle to secure his position.

Francis J. Dolan, who is tree warden at the present time and a candidate for re-election is opposed by George H. Conley. Conley ran against Dolan last year and was defeated by 30 votes.

One of the most important matters to come before the attention of the committee is a report from the committee appointed at a special meeting to examine the selectmen's report on the tax collection of Victoria J. Hosmer and report the same at tomorrow's meeting. The committee is composed of J. N. Parker, F. S. Clark and Natl. H. Jones.

Mr. Hosmer was a former collector of the town, some three or four years ago, and last year started out to collect something less than $5000 which had remained uncollected. According to the town treasurer's report Mr. Hosmer turned over $7,822.21 and it is expected that the committee will report favorably.

Article 21, c77a see if the town will raise and appropriate the sum of $500 for the building of the "Bridle road" promises to provoke a spirited discussion between Roger Barrington and Delacy Corkum.

Last year there was an article in the warrant calling for $700 for the repair of the road and the discussion that followed came near ending in a free-for-all fight, though finally $200 was voted.

Roger Barrington, who fathered the article relative to the Bridle road last year and who is also instrumental in having the article in the warrant this year, owns a camp on the Bridle road Delacy Corkum, who leases land on the opposite side of the river spoke against the article.

The discussion got so hot that the lie was passed and after Mr. Barrington had insinuated that he had seen Mr. Corkum standing up against a barn drinking, Corkum unloosened his pent up wrath and delivered a reply that will go down in the history of the town as the most lurid piece of eloquence ever heard in Billerica.

The list of estimates this year totals $22,865.00. The expenditures last year were $26,235.00.

Money deposited this week at the Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank begins to draw interest April 3.

GLADSTONE CLUB

Daly and Wright in a Busy Bout

Despite the bad weather, a large number of the members of the Gladstone club attended the regular meeting last evening when Andy Daly of Portland, Me. and Joe Wright from the Armory Club, Boston were the star attraction. Since the last meeting fire escapes have been added to the building and extinguishers placed about the walls while the entrances have been enlarged and the work of putting in additional ventilators has begun.

Daly is an old timer at the game and an exceedingly clever boxer. Wright is young and coming, but not as scientific or as good a ring general as Daly. The pair went at it for keeps with something doing all the time. Daly showed his famous right hand to fine advantage. Wright was willing and could take all that came his way without weakening. The referee called it a draw and the winners were satisfied with the decision though had he given it to Daly there would have been no kick coming, as the Portland boy had a slight advantage.

The preliminaries did not pan out as well as usual, though that is likely to happen in the best regulated of clubs. Joe Brady who tried to do some stunts with the gloves started in for a four round engagement with Young Moran a pupil of Marthy Flaherty's and Moran proved to be quite a pupil. Moran landed it to Joe's so generously that the latter didn't have any room for more and took the count in the fourth round. Young Lewis, who was to have boxed with Smith, did not put in an appearance and Bill O'Brien substituted for him. Once upon a time Bill O'Brien was a bit of a boxer, but that was some time ago. Bill O'Brien took the bait for two rounds and then lay down to pleasant dreams.

Young Mulvey and Peck O'Brien exchanged blows for four rounds in an entertaining manner with honors even. But the main event was the best thing and well worth the trip in the storm.

TURNED ON GAS

Mrs. Lorillard Tired of Society Life

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Weary of the gay whirl of society and face to face, as she believed, with years of physical suffering, Mrs. Caroline Hamilton Lorillard, aged 43, wife of Pierre Lorillard, Jr., the tobacco magnate, committed suicide by asphyxiation in her home near the fashionable Dupont circle in this city yesterday.

Her tragic death has shocked the first social circles of the capital as nothing else in years. Last night the members of the Lorillard family, famous because of its wealth, are gathered here to mourn over the unexpected blow.

The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been the guests of Mrs. Richard Townsend on Massachusetts avenue, at a dinner given in honor of Lady Paget. In fact, it is believed that as soon as Mrs. Lorillard arrived at her home at 20th Hiller place, shortly after midnight yesterday morning, she began to prepare for her death.

About 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning the butler in the Lorillard house detected an odor of gas and the origin of the fumes was traced to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments. Opening the door of the bathroom off of her suite the butler found the body of the mistress of the house stretched out lifeless on the floor.

Coroner Says Suicide
The alarm given by the butler brought Mr. Lorillard from his apartments across the hall and together they carried the body to her room. The servant was sent for a doctor, while

A telegram was received in this city Wednesday, announcing the serious illness of Mrs. John Harlan of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Harlan was formerly Miss Elizabeth Kelley of this city and Mr. Harlan at one time was instructor in golf at the Vesper-Country club.

MERRIMACK SQUARE

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

At the Opera House last night a good sized house, "Kidnaping in New York" was presented. Mr. Gilmore, as "Jack" Dupont, a newspaperman and a detective, made a hit in the leading role. The plot of the play is based on the kidnapping of a little girl, Elsie Clark, and this part is taken by Baby Vetry in a clever manner.

Mr. Gilmore is a fine actor. Mr. James Edwards, who appeared as Mr. Mazzio, the villain, was good. A very pleasing actress was Miss Margaret Marlow, who took the leading role as "Mary Brandon," a young woman in love with Dupont.

Most of the other characters were good, and the show as a whole made a good impression on the audience.

COHAN & HARRIS MINSTRELS

The Opera House will have for its attraction on Saturday, March 27, matinee and night the big Cohan and Harris Minstrels, an organization consisting of nearly a hundred people, and headed by one of America's most popular burlesque comedians, "Honey Boy" George Evans. Much has been written about and much has been heard about this latest enterprise from the George M. Cohan workshop, and the show comes here with all the prestige that a successful Broadway engagement and a long engagement in Chicago can give it. Minstrelsy, as conceived and originated by the Cohan and Harris organization has received an interest in this style of entertainment that a year ago was deemed impossible. All the traditions of minstrelsy, Mr. Cohan is said to have retained in his entertainment, but he has succeeded in giving it a new frame and lightening up the music by spots, so that as now presented, by this company, minstrelsy is as fresh and entertaining as the many musical shows Messrs. Cohan and Harris have sent forth. They have given their production a most elaborate stage setting, consisting of ten appropriate scenes of marvelous beauty for the various acts, while the costumes, it is said to be fully as costly and to compare favorably with the best dress shows of the period.

It is generally understood that Geo. M. Cohan has devoted a great deal of his time during the past few months to the organization of this company. Most of the songs he has composed and many of the musical "gags" are his, while what is destined to prove one of the big features of the performance, a one-act musical sketch entitled "The Belle of the Barbours' Ball," he has written and personally produced. In fact, the entire performance, from the first part to the final curtain is a "Cohan show," as carefully produced and as elaborately presented as the most pretentious comedy that has yet come from the Cohan workshop. The company is headed by George Evans, the original "Honey Boy," who stands pre-eminent in the head of all minstrel comedians. Mr. Evans is surrounded by a very capable company embracing the names of nearly all the famous minstrel comedians, singers and musicians now familiar to the American public. Among these may be mentioned Eddie Dean and John King, Ernest Tenney and Alf Gibson, while the singing contingent includes such famous soloists as Frank Morrell, Matt Keefe, and Earl J. Ryan, who will be supported in their vocal numbers by a carefully selected chorus of eighty singers of note. The vaudeville features of the performance include such famous acts as the Watersbury brothers and Tenney and Julian Ellings. The latter is the recognized leading impersonator of feminine characters in this country and abroad. Another big feature of the entertainment will be a marching number produced by James Gorman, entitled "After the Battle," which will consist of the prowess of fifty people and which will be presented with marvelous scenic, electric and chorus effects.

THE GREAT DIVIDE

"The Great Divide" will be presented at the Opera House for three consecutive matinees, starting Monday, the 27th. Over five hundred thousand people paid to see this play in New York City alone, during the two seasons run at the Princess and Daly's theatres. No play ever written has been so enthusiastically received by the leading critics and reviewers of the country. Local playgoers are to be congratulated upon this opportunity to see this great play. The cast is headed by John Luce, Jr. and Clara Krall.

M. PAUL CAZENUEVE

The announcement is made of the return engagement here to the Opera House for one day only, of M. Paul Cazenueve and his company from the National French theatre of Montreux, April 1st and the play to be presented will be "Don Caesar de Bazan," a special scenic production of which play will be made. The sale of tickets opens at the box office of the theatre next Monday morning and as this is M. Cazenueve's last appearance here this season, it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

"The Travesty on the big score in 'The Thief,' as presented by Harry MacDonough and company in 'The Rehearsal,' at Hathaway's theatre, this week, is a sure fire hit. It is one of the best travesties seen here this year. In Mr. MacDonough's act, too, several other good things. Special- ly striking is the tabloid melodrama, which Mr. MacDonough and Miss Phelps give in screaming fashion. Mr. MacDonough, in the old part of Jefferson MacAnis, more than makes good.

The Asahi troupe of Japanese magicians and acrobats provide a good closing for the show. There are six men and a woman in the troupe, and they perform some striking feats in juggling, the shifting mountains at the close of the act are mystifying in the extreme and they are unusually pretty. Gates & Blake, a couple of youngsters, offer one of the smartest scenes of the evening. The younger of the two gives an intimate touch of Hebrew humor. The act goes with much dash, humor & black in "The Third Degree" show the funny antics of a couple of blackface men, and Walter Lewis and company appear in the farce, "A Baby Grand." Earl & Curtis show up in "Just Roaming Along" and Solanti & Grovini open the bill with "The Moving Pictures are good."

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the matinees for women.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Three separate and distinct programs are offered weekly at the Academy, and each program includes four or five new moving pictures, two illustrated songs and a series of views of the world. The show runs for two hours and is the best moving picture show ever offered for the money, the admission being only five cents, including a good seat. The program presented at the Academy are of the highest class in motion photography. Every picture is personally inspected by the management before its acceptance and nothing at all objectionable is permitted on the Academy screen. Variety is insured in the selection of the reels, and hence the subjects of the pictures are all of a different nature. The Academy caters especially to ladies and hence maintains a ladies' reception room and employs a matron to look after the comfort of its patrons of the fair sex. Cleanliness is the rule at the Academy, both as regards the pictures and the character of its performance. The shows run daily from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 10:30, except Saturday

"Doctor's Daughter"

Says: "I believe that much suffering and many diseases could be prevented if only taken in time. If you are suffering with some hidden trouble you should attend to it at once. Delays are dangerous and may lead to some chronic or fatal disease. The stomach and liver are the cause of much ill health and many fatal diseases. A little stomach trouble is easily cured, but if not attended to soon develops into a serious trouble. For stomach or liver trouble, Stomach-Rite has proven its worth and some of the cures have been really remarkable. It fills my heart with utter thankfulness to think that I have been able to relieve so much suffering among my fellow beings with my remedy. Stomach-Rite treats the stomach and intestinal tract, quickly clearing indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, burning in stomach, flatulence, and last but not least, constipation. Obtain Stomach-Rite tablets at your druggist's. See that the picture of my father, Dr. John Wilbur, is on each box. Accept no substitutes. If you cannot obtain Stomach-Rite, it will be sent you on receipt of your money, receipt of price 50c. In addressing your mail order to 'Doctor's Daughter,' Western, R. I.

when a continuous performance from 2 to 10:30 is given. The admission fee is but 5c, and there are reserved seats at five cents extra. If you are in Lowell on Sunday you will find two pictures that are new and interesting. The picture in that city and running the same high class shows as in Lowell.

THEATRE VOYONS

Though the programs offered at the Theatre Voyons are of the highest possible standard, the given today is better than the average. The feature picture, "The Return of Odysseus," is the third of the Pathé film d'art series and its story of the return of the Greek hero is told in a perfect manner. "A Deception" and "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," both tell stories of domestic life, the former is more realistic. "We Must Have a New Butler" furnishes enough laughs for any program and they are hearty ones, too. The most interesting scenic picture in some time is offered in "A Trio on Mt. Blanc," which shows a great many points of interest in the Alps and their country. Both songs are pleasing and highly sung.

STAR THEATRE

A singing orchestra and talking pictures besides the other motion pictures, comic and dramatic, is the program at the Star theatre for five cents, for which seats can be had.

Today new pictures were shown, including two talking pictures, "How the Kids Got Even" and "The Matinee Idol."

"Minnigan's Fish Band" is the song hit by the concert singer, Miss Albina Gaudin, a special singer, appears all week.

Told by a Friend

Much of the good in the world comes to us through our friends. Probably two-thirds of the good things of this world have been brought about by the good things told of it by those who have been greatly helped by taking the remedy. An instance in Lowell is the case of Charles A. Spencer, the veteran sign-maker, of 22 Middle street. Here is what he says: "I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism in my limbs for many years, and was so bad at times that I had to walk with crutches. I had tried nearly every remedy on the market and had consulted physicians, but their remedies helped me for only a short time. Two years ago I heard of Rogers' Indian Blood Remedy through a friend, who told me of the good it had done him, and I decided to try it. The medicine worked very quickly in my case. I was helped almost at once and I had to take only two bottles to be cured. Since then, the rheumatism has had no return of the trouble since that time. It is the best medicine that I have ever tried."

Rogers' Indian Blood Remedy is nothing but simple blood remedy made of roots and herbs prepared from an old formula given to Mr. Rogers over forty years ago by an Indian squaw who had accomplished wonders in healing with it. It's a simple nature remedy, but like the simple laws of nature its results are marvelous. As a spring purifier of the blood, there is nothing better. For sale by Mr. W. H. NEGROES KILLED

MANY OTHERS WOUNDED IN BATTLE WITH DEPUTIES

GUTHRIE, Okla., March 26.—On the scene of the famous Creek Indian uprising of last year at Guthrie, a battle between two negroes and four deputies was fought yesterday. The negroes were killed, and the deputies were wounded. The fighting began late yesterday and continued with interruptions until 10 o'clock yesterday.

A few hours after the first clash, a larger posse, heavily armed, reached the settlement. Some one fired a shot and the rioting was on. When the night fell the excitement increased and negroes roamed through the woods, firing and yelling.

The fight continued as a series of duels throughout the night and shortly after daybreak the deputies renewed the attack on the negroes, who now numbered 100 against 29 deputies. About 300 shots were fired in the last encounter, when the two negroes were killed and Deputy Sheriff Fowler injured.

The negroes were dislodged from huts and died. The deputies, pursued and captured.

No further rioting is anticipated.

$100,000 GIFT

EXETER, N. H., Mar. 26.—Phillips-Exeter academy's list of scholarships was augmented yesterday by the addition of $100,000 in two separate gifts, of $50,000 each. Hubert E. Peschmann, 74, who died in Boston in January, 1907, bequeathed $50,000 to the academy for an endowment of $250 each to such students of Harvard university who are also graduates of Exeter, as have demonstrated high proficiency in studies.

Mrs. Margaret B. Langdale of Cambridge, Mass., desiring to commemorate her dead husband, Prof. Charles C. Langdale, former dean of the law faculty of Harvard, gave Exeter $50,000 as the basis of five scholarships to be known as the Charles C. Langdale scholarships.

Robert B. Lincoln of Chicago, son of the martyred president, presented the academy with a life size portrait of his father, together with two historically valuable letters.

YOUNG MEN'S HAIR

STRONG REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE CAREFULLY CARED FOR

Baldness among young men is getting to be a serious industrial problem. In these days of keen competition when scuffling, grasping corporations are demanding and getting the best, most vigorous and energetic men in the country, it is a well known fact that young men have the preference, and that many corporations have made it a rule to retire employees at 45 and 50 years of age, and to replace them with younger and seemingly more vigorous men.

The baldheaded man at 35 nowadays will have just as hard a time finding a desirable job as the man of 50 with luxuriant hair.

For this reason alone, every man who cares anything for those dependent upon him should take care of his hair. Don't become bald or gray and old looking at 35, or 40, or 50. Take care of your hair and you can better take care of your job.

If you have dandruff, look out. Your scalp is full of little germs, digging, night and day into the roots of the hair, and destroying that vitality without which healthy hair is impossible.

Perhaps you will be glad to know that Carter & Sherburne have a guarantee cure for dandruff called Parisian Sage, that will remove every trace of dandruff in two weeks or you can have your money back.

That's a pretty fair offer, isn't it? But let them go further and say that Parisian Sage is also guaranteed to stop falling hair, itching of the scalp, and to grow hair if the hair root be not dead.

And the ladies of Lowell ought to know that a large percentage of the beautiful women of America are using Parisian Sage, because it is the most delightful, refreshing and invigorating hair dressing made. It will quickly turn dull, listless and lifeless hair into luxuriant, soft and beautiful hair. The price is 25 cents a bottle from Carter & Sherburne, or by express, all charges prepaid, from the sole makers in America, the Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. People who live in Lowell are sure of getting Parisian Sage from Lowell, but many towns cheap imitations similar to Parisian Sage are being offered for Parisian Sage. Look for the girl with the Auburn hair on every package.

BOYLE TRANSFERRED

Alleged Kidnapper Taken to the Mercer County Jail

PITTSBURG, March 26.—James Boyle of Sharon, Pa., the kidnapper of Willie Whittle, was taken from the Allegheny county jail at 12:37 this afternoon, and at 1 o'clock departed for Mercer, where he will be placed in jail. Mrs. Boyle, his wife, will remain in jail here, as it is said there are no accommodations for women prisoners at the Mercer jail. Whether this is the real reason for the move is not definitely known as yet, but there are rumors to the contrary.

Boyle was handcuffed to Sheriff Chess of Mercer county when he left the jail. In the party were also Chief Crain of Sharon and G. B. Perkins and son, Pittsburgh detectives.

The trip from the jail to the railroad station was made in Mr. Perkins' automobile. Few people know of the departure from the jail and as a result there was no demonstration either at the prison or railroad station. The route to the station was through the downtown section of Pittsburgh and across the Ninth street bridge over the Allegheny river to the North Side. Boyle will reach the Mercer county jail shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon.

It has seemed since Mrs. Boyle was arrested at Cleveland that the police are inclined to throw considerable mystery around her. Up to noon there were many conflicting stories about her. The Mercer authorities told District Attorney Blakey that Boyle would be taken to Mercer county today. Two minutes later they reported to the jail and signed release for both Boyle and the woman. Mr. Blakey was greatly amazed when told of this.

"That must mean that both are to be taken," he said. "Why Sheriff Chess just informed me he was going to leave the woman here and further said that if there was any trouble about her being kept here he had forestalled by creating a Warden Lewis of Allegheny county jail."

The next moment only Boyle was taken and the woman left here. It is said that the authorities were undecided until the last minute what to do.

WAYWARD GIRL

FATHER TELLS STORY OF ANNA McDERMOTT'S LIFE

CHICAGO, March 26.—That William McDermott, a retired member of the fire department, is the father of Mrs. James Boyle, who with her husband is charged with the kidnapping of Willie Whittle, was confirmed by the grief-stricken father today.

Information from Cleveland, indicating that the prisoner arrested there was the girl who before her marriage was Anna McDermott, was brought to William McDermott and his son of the same name, who is a bank clerk, last night. Neither father nor son would definitely admit that the imprisoned woman was their daughter and sister. They admitted that the evidence was conclusive. There was little sleep in their home at 530 Cleveland avenue, last night, the long hours being spent in hoping against hope that there was some mistake in the identification.

Today, however, reporters presented every known detail of the identification as telegraphed from Cleveland, and that there could be no doubt that Mrs. Boyle could be none other than the daughter of Mr. McDermott's story of his daughter's life is that of a wayward girl.

Anna McDermott, according to her father, was as a child one of the prettiest and brightest in the neighborhood. She was given every possible advantage of education and careful training, but as she approached womanhood she fell into company of which the old fireman did not approve. Quarrels were frequent, and about three years ago Anna eloped. Since that time her history has a blank to her Chicago kin.

WANTS FOUR CHANGES

Report of Committee on Lowell Charter Bill

Wants Party Names Retained, Two Year Terms of Office, and No Recall Provisions — Does Not Think Accounting System Necessary

Through the courtesy of Rep. Barlow the Sun today was made acquainted with the changes suggested by the committee on cities to the board of trade in its charter bill.

The committee's report was supposed to have been mailed to Judge Fisher Wednesday evening but it was learned today that it had not been sent to him as yet.

The committee recommends four changes in the charter bill presented by the board of trade. In the first place it suggests that the board eliminate the section which calls for no party designation thus detaining the old partisanship in elections.

It suggests that the section providing for the recall of the mayor by a certain number of voters be eliminated and it asks that the terms of appointment

A BIG WASHOUT INCENDIARY FIRE

On Concord Division of B. & M. Road Woman Injured at Blaze in Boston

FRANKLIN, N. H., March 26.—Traffic on the main line of the Concord division of the Boston & Maine railroad, near here, was completely tied up by a washout today. The washout was discovered by sectionmen, who were returning from Franklin Junction shortly after 6 o'clock this morning. The heavy rain of yesterday has made a big excavation about 100 feet long and nearly 50 feet deep.

A work train with 100 men was immediately sent from Concord but it was thought that the tracks would not be restored before night. In the meantime all passengers were obliged to walk past the washout and all baggage had to be trucked around.

STOCK MARKET ASKS $10,000,000

To Pay for Taking New Census

WASHINGTON, March 26.—In view of the deficit of the treasury, Director North of the census bureau has withdrawn his request for an appropriation of $14,117,000 for the next census and has substituted a request for $10,000,000. The original estimate covered not only the year 1910 when the enumeration must take place, but the three succeeding years during which the reports will be tabulated and published. The revised estimate covers the expenses only for next year in which all preparatory and field work will take place. This is the amount appropriated at the beginning of the last census. It is estimated that $5,500,000 will be necessary to pay supervisors and enumerators.

MR. HOWLAND

WANTS LUMBER PLACED ON FREE LIST

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Speaking in favor of placing lumber on a free list Mr. Howland, Ohio, declared that the continuance of a lumber tariff on the statute books as a protective tariff is a disgrace. He said that the tariff on lumber is a disgrace to the people of this country and that it is a disgrace to the people of this country and that it is a disgrace to the people of this country.

BATTLESHIPS

PLANS FOR TWO 26,000 TON FIGHTING MACHINES

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Plans for the two 26,000 ton battleships will be completed and placed before the secretary of the navy for his approval before the end of the present fiscal year. It is expected that there will be no delay in beginning the construction of these vessels. Although exceeding by almost one-third the size of the battleships formerly constructed the new vessels will have a speed of 20 1/2 knots. Officers are watching the progress of these plans with great interest. It is not believed that the increase in the size will give rise to any serious problems of construction not encountered in the building of the 20,000 ton battleships.

LIQUOR SALOONS

Visited by the Police Board Today

The board of police, accompanied by Supt. William B. Morratt, started this morning on a tour of inspection of the saloons and locations where applicants have been made for liquor licenses.

The commissioners left their office shortly after ten o'clock and started in at Kears' saloon in Central street, opposite Tyler street, and visited the saloons in Central and Lawrence streets and vicinity and those saloons in North street, from Anthony Donohoe's to Anthony Conway's, near the railroad bridge. The board also paid a visit to the Harvard brewery.

This afternoon about 2:30 o'clock the board resumed its tour of inspection and starting with A. E. Rouch a saloon in Bridge street took in all the places in Central, Salem and Cambridge streets and those in the upper portion of Moody, Merrimack and Market streets.

SENATOR HALE

OPPOSED TO ANY GENERAL LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, March 26.—In order to emphasize the determination not to attempt any general legislation during the extraordinary session of Congress Senator Hale as chairman of the republican steering committee has sent a note to every senator who is chairman of a committee calling attention to the suggestion of the president that the business of the session be confined as far as practicable to the consideration of the tariff bill. The note states that by unanimous vote of the republican steering committee he decided to recommend that no legislation other than the tariff bill or the census bill shall be reported. It is not doubted that the suggestion will be generally observed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 26.—Noticees were posted in all the works here of the Republican Iron & Steel Co. of a reduction in wages effective April 1. About 4000 men were affected by the order, including all the employees from foreign laborers, except men (excepted) with the Amalgamated Iron and Tin Workers. KING PETER

WILL ASSENT TO SON RELINQUISHING RIGHT

BELGRADE, March 26.—As soon as Crown Prince George informs his father King Peter that it is his irrevocable wish to renounce his right of succession to the Serbian throne the king will assent and will ask parliament to sanction a proclamation declaring his son, Alexander, to be heir to the throne. Alexander spent some time at St. Petersburg as a student and is an intelligent and serious minded young man.

The cabinet has issued a statement that the servant Kolokovitch for whose death the crown prince was said to be responsible, asserted when he was brought to the hospital that his injury had been caused by falling down stairs in the dark. The body showed no external injuries and consequently the authorities have no reason to pause the matter further. In the event of new facts being discovered there will be a fresh investigation.

AN EXCITING SCENE

Two Congressmen Very Nearly Came to Blows

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Through a misunderstanding, Rep. Byrd of Mississippi and Rep. Fordney of Michigan almost came to blows on the floor of the house today while the latter was making a speech on the tariff. Mr. Byrd asked Mr. Fordney if it were not true that a combination exists among the rubber dealers in Mississippi, of which Mr. Fordney's firm is operating in that state was a partner. Mr. Byrd added that he knew whereof he spoke when he charged the existence of such a combination.

"The gentleman doesn't know a d—," thing about it," shouted Mr. Fordney, immediately Mr. Byrd made his way to Mr. Fordney, but several democrats stopped him.

Mr. Fordney apologized to the house and said that if he had offended the gentleman from Mississippi he most humbly apologized. He added, however, that Mr. Byrd could not say that his firm was a member of a lumber trust.

Mr. Byrd then explained that it was not his intention to make such a charge, and the incident was closed.

THE DINGLEY BILL AFTER 25 YEARS

Better Than Payne Bill, Says Humphrey

WASHINGTON, March 26.—When the tariff bill was laid before the house today Mr. Humphrey of Washington took issue with some statements made by Mr. Payne in his opening speech regarding the number of Orientals engaged in the lumber mills of British Columbia. Mr. Payne, he said, left the impression that there were fewer Orientals working in such mills there than in the state of Washington. That statement was erroneous, he said. He declared that over 60 per cent of the men engaged in the lumber and shingle mills of British Columbia were Orientals who were paid lower wages than American mill laborers and that therefore the cost of production was less. Out of the 13,350 men employed in the shingle mills of Washington, Mr. Humphrey said, there were only forty-one Orientals. He also said of the 10,000 men employed in the lumber and shingle mills of that state there were but 1500 Orientals.

Mr. Humphrey in pleading for an increased duty on shingles warned the legislators that they could not escape their responsibility in so far as the problem of Oriental labor was concerned.

"Now," he said, "we have an opportunity to see whether or not we are going back on what we have said in protecting the labor of this country from the ruinous competition of the labor of foreign lands." While the Payne bill, he said, protected the industries of New England, Pennsylvania and New York and while they were in operation out in Washington the conditions were exactly the reverse.

"Our mills are closing," he declared, "and men are being thrown out of employment."

He discussed the benefits derived under the Dingley bill and inquired how, as a republican and a protectionist, could he go back to his constituents and say that those who asked for the protection of the labor of this country were better than the Dingley bill.

On the authority of Mr. Fordney (Mich.) the Washington member asserted that the witnesses before the committee on ways and means who wanted lumber put on the free list were interested in Canadian lumber, while those who asked for the retention of the Dingley duty were men interested in timber in the United States.

"We ought not to hesitate long when that question is presented," he said, "as to who we shall legislate for."

BUSINESS IMPROVING

NEW YORK, March 26.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate a tendency toward conservatism in many lines of trade, but the general outlook is improved, particularly in the west. Business conditions at Boston show further improvement, cotton mills have very large orders, jobbing dry goods trade is active and there is a better demand for pig iron.

Bank earnings maintain a steady volume. For this week total exchanges at all leading cities in the United States are $2,329,346,351.

J. E. BUCKINGHAM DEAD

WASHINGTON, March 26.—J. E. Buckingham, 71 years old, who was doorman at Ford's theatre at the time President Lincoln was assassinated, died here today. Mr. Buckingham was a witness at the inquest on Lincoln's death. He was born in Baltimore, coming here in the early sixties.

Four sons survive. John and William of this city, George of Minneapolis and Charles of Chicago.

CAPT. CARTER ILL

CHICAGO, March 26.—Oberlin Carter, former captain of the United States army, is seriously ill of pneumonia at the home of a brother in this city. Mr. Carter recently contracted a severe cold and symptoms of pneumonia developed soon after. Carter's trial several years ago on charges of misappropriating funds in connection with further work at Savannah, Ga., attracted national attention. Dr. C. F. Ely, attending Mr. Carter, said today that he had hopes Mr. Carter would recover.

A VISITOR TO LOCAL POLICE STATION TODAY

Inspector Morrissey of the Boston police department was a visitor at the police station this afternoon. ANNUAL MEETING

Of Vesper-Country Club
Held Last Evening

It was a rough night on the coast, yet 15 members of the Vesper-Country club took a chance on the suspension bridge at Tyng's Island and attended the annual meeting of the club, last evening.

The elements interfered materially with the size of the attendance, but not with the good spirits of those who did attend. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by Sam, F. L. Clough, and Pease's orchestra furnished music. There was singing by Andrew G. Swann, Robert W. Thompson, Henry G. Pollard, William H. Patton, Edward Ellingwood, Fred Howard and others. At 8 o'clock President A. M. Goodwick called to order and Sec. A. G. Swann read the records of the last annual meeting.

Treasurer's Report
Treasurer Arthur J. Markland read a very complete and interesting report showing that the club has made considerable financial gain during the year. The comparisons with last year show that the new bridge has added greatly to the receipts of the island club house. The total of sales for the club house for the past season is $25,915, as against $18,842.12 for the previous season, showing a gain for the year of $7,072.88.

The receipts from the launch on the bridge total $679.11, while the expenses of carrying it on and paying for interest on the bonds was $266.05 less than the receipts, proving that the bridge is a self-supporting affair. The bridge cost $7447.41, which was paid for by an issue of bonds to the amount of $7000 and the balance of $447.41 was paid out of the regular account. Of the bonds $1000 has already been redeemed, so that the bridge now stands the club at the figure of $6000. A new float and a new ice house were built and large sums were expended on the golf links. The general expenses at the Country club house totaled $13,533.03, and at the boat house, $852.69, making the grand total expense $15,465.72. Added to this are Lung Kuro loosens the phlegm in the throat and lungs as nothing else can, completely healing the tissues and thus preventing any danger of lung trouble or consumption.

At drug stores and health food stores and from a bottle.

The depreciation figures, given as $2350 on the buildings, $750 on the furnishings, $1447.41 on the bridge, $190 on personal property at the boat house, and had debts of $2355, making the total charged to the expense account $21,467.18. But the total receipts were $21,631.34, leaving a balance of $164.16 for the profit and loss account.

The assets of the club are figured at $43,379.73 and the gross liabilities at $22,243.81. These liabilities may be required by quick assets, figured at $37,979.73, leaving a net liability of $25,715.08.

The restaurant department made a profit of $165.35, an unusual result for the club restaurant. The stable department showed a loss of $618.10 and the loss in the golf department was $331.60. The greens committee department paid out $2004.84 as against net receipts of $1515.25 and the tennis and water department made a profit of $294.56. The rooms at the island club house showed a profit of $121.87 and the camp showed a balance of $113.01.

Andrew G. Swann read an interesting report as secretary, covering the club's activities for the past year, discussing the future, the report reads as follows:

"The giving up of the boat house as a part of the club sports; the fact that the bungalow is old and will soon need serious repairs; the need of a proper automobile house; the fact that the rooms in the present house have not been adequate on a number of occasions to accommodate all who desire to stop at the island; the need of a hall to seat about 400 people for club affairs, such as the annual meeting, ladies' day, team golf dinners, large private parties, which can also be used for dancing, brings a serious proposition before your executive committee. In considering this matter early in the year the president appointed a committee of permanent improvements, with the view of laying out a general club plan, which will be needed during the next ten years. This committee on permanent improvements has given this matter careful consideration, and at the present time has three architects drawing plans for new club buildings. It is not the intention of your committee to do anything in this line the coming year, but it was thought best by it that before any changes were made a thoroughly well-considered plan should be adopted to be followed on as fast as the club was able financially to do so.

"It is, however, the intention of your committee the coming year to build a new boat house to accommodate the club boats, canoes and a few private canoes, on the flats in the creek just inside of the river near the clubhouse. We are also compelled on account of the increased business to make an enlargement and re-arrangement of our kitchen and to alter over the sheds back of the stable, so that about ten automobiles can be housed under cover at one time.

"A plan has been drawn for an ornamental entrance to the club grounds leading from the electric car on the Tyngsboro road. It is proposed to rebuild the stone wall, set the electric car station back of its present situation, and to plant some shrubs on both sides of the plank walk leading down to the bridge. This will make a straight line from the road over the bridge."

The officers of the club were unanimously re-elected, as follows:
For executive committee, Alfred M. Chadwick, Edward Ellingwood, James G. Hill, Arthur J. Markland, Thomas Nesmith, Wm. T. Patton, Arthur T. Safford, Harry E. Shaw, Andrew G. Swann.
Secretary Harry Swann read the proposed changes in the by-laws, and these amendments were adopted. John A. Faulkner and Julian B. Keyes were chosen auditors for the ensuing year.
Robert W. Thomson, after a glowing speech, moved that the club endorse the proposed automobile carnival for next fall. The motion was adopted.
A unanimous vote of thanks and appreciation to the officers of the club and to Mr. and Mrs. Clough was given.

Thomas Smith of East Chelmsford, is very sick at his home in upper Grahams street, with bronchitis.

FAST RIDING

GOERKE MAKES SOME MORE RECORDS

DAYTONA, Fla., March 26.—The third day's tournament of the Daytona beach races was confined almost exclusively to motor cycle and bicycle races, there being only two automobile races, the Daytona handicap, which was run twice, a distance of four miles each. The principal feature of the day's events was the breaking of the world's record one-hour motor cycle record by Walter Goerke of Brooklyn, N. Y. (who covered 60 miles in 58 minutes 25 4-5 seconds). The former record was 68 miles, 1380 yards, made in one hour on the Brookland Cement track in England. Goerke also established a new world's record for the kilometer, covering the distance in 27 4-5 seconds. Robert Stubbs of Birmingham also lowered the world's one mile motor cycle record made yesterday by Goerke in the remarkably fast time of 43 2-5 seconds against Goerke's time of 45 1-5. The Buick team, composed of Strang, Burman, Myers and DeWitt, left today for Atlanta to enter in the hill climbing contest.

It was announced last night that the eighth Daytona beach tournament will be held on this course the last week in January, 1910, and a large sum of money will be deposited for cash prizes.

FRANK GOTCH

RETAINED HIS TITLE AS WORLD'S CHAMPION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 26.—Frank Gotch of Iowa, champion wrestler of the world, last night retained his title by defeating Raoul De Rouen of France in straight falls.

One of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed such an event in the country was present. W. D. Scoville, manager of the Missouri Athletic club, which put up the $8000 purse for the match, estimated the attendance at over 10,000. The winner's end of the purse was $5000.

Both contestants were in excellent condition. Gotch, who weighed 212 pounds, was a ten to nine favorite, though De Rouen was 19 pounds heavier.

The winning fall was won with Gotch's famous toe hold. The Frenchman had allowed his shoulders to be put to the mat almost without an effort.

Gotch really won the bout in the last four rounds.

first fall when he so weakened his opponent, with the toe hold that De Rouen did not care to repeat the experience in the second fall. The time for the falls was 34.45, and 13 minutes, flat, respectively.

FOUGHT A DRAW

NEW YORK, March 26.—Young Corbett and Bert Keyes met here last night in a fast 10 round bout. Corbett won a draw by excellent work in the last four rounds.

6 O'CLOCK SHE IS IDENTIFIED

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—The woman known to the police as Mrs. James Boyle and believed to be the brains behind the kidnapping of Billy Whitt, was identified yesterday by a Cleveland vessel owner as Anna McDermott. She was born in Chicago. Her father is a well known business man there and she has a brother who is a banker. She was educated in a convent.

Three years ago she disappeared from home. Since then her family has been in ignorance of her whereabouts. She is 22 years old. The vessel owner's half sister is the girl's mother. A sister of the woman visited her a short time ago.

CROWD HOOTED WHEN ALLEGED KIDNAPERS WERE TAKEN TO TRAIN

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—With hoots and jeers ringing in their ears, James H. Boyle and his wife, arrested here as the kidnapers of little Willie Whitt of Sharon, Pa., were escorted by police to an Erie train last night for Mercer, Pa.

This practically closes the case as far as Cleveland is concerned, as further action will be taken by the Pennsylvania authorities. However, the Cleveland police have a club over the heads of the Boyles in a joint indictment returned yesterday charging James H. Boyle and Helene Boyle, alias Faulkner, with blackmail. This charge is based on the payment of $1000 ransom by J. P. Whitt for the recovery of his son Willie, here, last Monday. This indictment will be used by the local officials in the event that the case in Pennsylvania falls of conviction.

Sheriff William Chass of Mercer county, Pa., and Chief of Police Crane of Sharon arrived here yesterday and immediately originated proceedings for the return of the prisoners.

The Cuyahoga county officials waited their rights to the Boyles and the latter informed Chief Kohler that they would not fight extradition to the Keystone state.

A few minutes before the train left the station the couple were hurried from central police station to the depot in a patrol wagon. As the prisoners alighted from the wagon a great throng surged about them and it was with much difficulty that a path was cleared to the coaches. As Boyle and his wife, each accompanied by two patrolmen, walked through the train shed the crowd greeted them with hoots and jeers.

Mrs. Boyle had nothing to do with the actual kidnapping of Willie Whitt, according to the statement which yesterday by the woman and her husband, Police Prosecutor Daniel Cull, was in conversation with the Boyles and the latter said that although he expected to be "railroaded" when tried in Pennsylvania, there is absolutely no way to connect his wife with any offense committed in that state.

To the Associated Press Mrs. Boyle said she first saw "Billy" here in Cleveland and that she "had nothing to do with the other part of the case."

Mrs. Boyle apparently was in good spirits, but her husband maintained his indifferent manner, having little to say. Most of the questions asked were addressed to Mrs. Boyle, and all eyes in the small circle of listeners gazed at the attractive woman.

"Why don't someone look at Mr. Boyle?" asked Chief Kohler. "He is not so charming," came the quick reply from Mrs. Boyle.

Then the man prisoner caused a general laugh by paying his wife this compliment:

"Mrs. Boyle has three leather medals from tan shoes for being charming."

Mrs. Boyle denied that she is in any way related to the Whitt family. She had never been in Cleveland before, but when asked if she had been in Sharon a smile at her husband was the only answer.

"What did you think of Billy?" Mrs. Boyle was asked. "He is a dear child, and I really hated to part with him," she said.

To Chief Kohler, Mrs. Boyle said she was born and reared in Chicago and that her father is a resident of that city.

The last doubt as to the identity of Boyle was removed yesterday when Thomas F. Boyle of Sharon called at the police station and said the prisoner is his brother.

THE OFFICERS

FEARED FOR SAFETY OF PRISONERS

PITTSBURG, March 26.—Fearing for the safety of their prisoners if they were taken to Sharon or the county seat at Mercer, officers last night brought James H. Boyle and his wife, accused of kidnapping Willie Whitt, to the Allegheny county jail here. They were brought here in a special Pullman car from Cleveland. The prisoners were guarded by 15 detectives and officers.

The car was kept securely locked

and no one was granted admission to the car except an Associated Press man and a few other newspapermen who boarded the train at Youngstown.

It was the unanimous opinion of the officers charged on the case that it would be safer not to take any chances by exposing their prisoners to the wrath of the Sharon mob.

On the arrival at the jail Mrs. Boyle looked around and said: "This looks a little better than Cleveland, anyway." It is the intention of the officers to keep their prisoners in the jail here for several days and at some time when the public is not expecting it to remove them to the Mercer county jail, where they will be kept till the grand jury convenes the third week in April.

STIFF SENTENCES

Given Out in Police Court Today

Daniel Downey, of Tewksbury, was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on John Grant, an employee of the state hospital at Tewksbury, leading to the testimony of Grant and Downey got into an argument on a Boston bound electric car last Saturday night.

A battle of words ensued and Grant instead of getting off the car at Tewksbury Centre, as was his custom, went on to Foster's corner where Downey usually got to go to his home, and the two men met. Grant struck Downey and the latter drew a knife and slashed Grant. Grant was removed to St. John's hospital but when one of the local officers went over to the hospital to serve a summons on him it was found that he had left the hospital and his whereabouts at the present time is unknown.

This morning the case had progressed for some time before Judge Hadley was aware that the assaulted man was not present and after the government's case had been presented he ordered the case continued for one week in order that Grant might be brought into court.

Melvin M. Rogers appeared for the town of Tewksbury and Downey was represented by J. Joseph Hennessy.

John S. Crossman, a civil engineer, saw Downey and Grant on the electric car that left Lowell at 11:15 o'clock last Saturday night bound for Foster's corner about three miles below Tewksbury Centre. He said that the two men were arguing on the car and later heard them talking about fight. Both men had been drinking. Grant lives in Tewksbury Centre, but instead of getting off the car at the Centre he continued on to Foster's corner.

Continuing witness said: "When I got off the car at Foster's corner Grant came around to the back of the car and said: 'I have a revolver and will shoot any man who strikes me.' I told Grant that if he had a revolver he had better keep it in his pocket."

Downey then came around to the back of the car and he and Grant met. They started to argue and I tried to prevent them fighting. Some person pulled me away and then I saw Grant strike Downey. Downey tackled Grant and then I heard someone shout: 'Downey has got a knife.' While I was trying to get the knife away from Downey someone kicked him in the face. When Grant got up I saw that he was covered with blood and was cut in several places."

William E. Briggs, of Tewksbury, who was on the car, testified to a battle of words between the two men on the car and heard Grant try to have Downey get off the car at Wameest and have it out there, but Downey did not want to get out there.

Several other witnesses corroborated the statement offered by Messrs. Crossman and Briggs.

At this point it was found that John Grant, the man who had been stabbed, was not present in court. Judge Hadley wanted to know why the case had gone on when the assaulted man was not present. It was stated that after the assault Grant went to St. John's hospital, but when an officer was sent to summons him it was found that he had left the hospital, and his whereabouts at the present time is unknown.

The case was continued for one week.

Assault and Battery
George Malioras and Spyros Farfalis, charged with assault and battery on Gregorios Vassilis on March 17th, pleaded not guilty through their counsel, James E. O'Donnell. A. O. Hamel appeared for the government.

Gregorios Vassilis is employed as a bobbin boy at the Merrimack mills and while returning from work about six o'clock on the night of March 17 he claims he was met near the corner of Dutton and Merrimack streets by the defendants and the latter struck him with clubs.

Several witnesses testified for the defence, but the defendants were found guilty and each ordered to pay a fine of $20 in three days or be committed to jail for two months.

Placed on File
The case of Joseph Blood, charged with receiving stolen property, came up on continuance. Blood pleaded guilty and the case was placed on file.

A couple of weeks ago the tailor shop of George V. Gregg in the Spaulding block, corner of Central and Prescott streets, was entered and an overcoat and several suit patterns stolen. One of the men who made the break, sold ten yards of the cloth stolen to Blood, the latter paying 20 cents for the cloth which was valued at $12.50.

Robbins Defaulted
The case of Gardner F. Robbins, charged with concealing mortgaged property, was scheduled for trial this morning, but Robbins was not present. A capias was issued for his arrest.

Violated Probation
William Toy was under a suspended sentence of four months in jail, but he violated the rules of his probation, was re-arrested, and this morning in court the suspension was revoked. He appealed from the court's sentence and was held under $200 bonds for the superior court.

Third Offenders
It was the third appearance within three months for Thomas J. Cullen. For the next four months he will make his headquarters at the Lowell jail. Joseph Cullen promised to do better in the future and the court decided to give him a chance. He was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail and placed on probation for one year.

Carr Up Against It
James Carr "blew in" from Woodsville, N. H., a few days ago, and got hounded for a roll of money. Yesterday he was released by the probation officer, but had been free but a few hours when he was again arrested for drunkenness. He will spend the next ten days in jail.

Other Drunken Offenders
John Olson said he would go right out and go to work if he was released by the court, but he will not have a chance to go to his work until he has paid a fine of $6.

Elmer Ferron, a second offender, was fined $3.

Three first offenders were fined $2 each and six simple drunks were released.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY HOLDS INTERESTING SESSION

In the Fair hall the members of the Holy Name society of St. Peter's church held their regular meeting last night, and in spite of the inclement weather, there was a large attendance. President William F. Daly presided. The meeting was an interesting session.

The society voted to hold a requiem mass on Patriots' day for the deceased members of the society, and it is planned to have the members attend in a body.

The society also extended a vote of thanks to D. J. Donahue for his splendid address on "Character," which he delivered at the "banquet" of the society on the night of March 17.

Plans for the communion breakfast were completed.

Remarks for the good and welfare were made by Pres. Daly, Daniel

Reilly, Michael McGillicuddy, John King, Wm. F. Doyle, Daniel Toomey, Michael H. McDonough, Hugh A. McDermott, John A. Quinn and Secretary Ward.

The next meeting will be held on April 8th. The communion Sunday of the society is Palm Sunday and a big attendance is anticipated.

The society continues to prosper and under the guidance of Pres. Daly will doubtless make this year an eventful one in its history.

A DEMENTED MAN

Ran Barefoot Through Tewksbury Fields

Poor James Markey of 5 Cottage street, while temporarily deranged, escaped from his home at an early hour this morning and caused all sorts of excitement and apprehension among residents of the Fort Hill section and in upper Tewksbury.

About 7 o'clock the police station was called up by a person who stated that a wild man had been seen running along Moon street in the direction of Lawrence street, hatless and barefoot with a tattered coat on one foot and the other foot bare.

A few minutes later the man was reported going over Fort Hill and passing through the Lowell cemetery.

Sometime afterward Deputy Sheriff Clark of Tewksbury telephoned to the residents of that section were much alarmed by seeing what appeared to be a wild man walking hurriedly through the fields, with one foot bare and without hat or coat.

It remained for Assistant Clerk Edward Trull, of the local police court, to capture the wild man. Mr. Trull had left his house in lower Andover street and was waiting for his car when Markey came along somewhat exhausted after his long and painful journey. Approaching him Mr. Trull diplomatically said: "My friend, you look as though you needed a good breakfast. I'm just going to Lowell to have mine so come along with me and we'll eat together."

Markey thanked him, saying that he was very hungry and when the car came along he boarded it without objection and was carried to Lowell. When they arrived in Merrimack square "But" Ryan, who is always onto his job, was there and Mr. Trull immediately introduced him to Markey, and "But" did the rest.

"Where have you been? I've been looking everywhere for you," said "But," who is a master of the blarney. "I started out on that walk and I'm going to finish it as soon as I eat," said Markey.

"Why didn't you put on your other shoe?" inquired the officer.

"That was part of the bet. I made a bet that I would walk 300 miles in three hours with one shoe on and one shoe off, and according to the bet my first stop was to be at Lockman and from there to Bandon and Bandon Centre, and then down through Kerty." "By going you picked out a fine walk for yourself. That's bigger than my bet," commented "But" as the wagon arrived.

Markey was examined by the alienists, and it is believed that he will be all right again in a short time.

YOUNG WOMAN

LANSING, Mich., March 26.—From the humble position as stenographer in a mercantile establishment at a modest salary to the state of millionaire is a far stride but not beyond being achieved by pretty Miss Loue Rikerd of this city, if all reports are true.

A portion of an estate valued at $45,000,000 left in Glasgow, Scotland, is due Miss Rikerd, according to advices she received recently. It is believed her share will reach $5,000,000. The estate is said to have been left by a great-uncle of Miss Rikerd's mother, who is said to have been a direct descendant of St. Francis Drake, the celebrated English admiral and navigator.

For six years administrators of the estate have been tracing down the relatives and Miss Rikerd has received word that her claim to relationship has been established beyond doubt.

TWO FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Fact Number One About

OUR BARGAIN BASEMENT

We put our hats down stairs department last week and by the way it is being patronized it proves that we are giving people great values. We know we are and want you to know it, and if you feel interested in saving money, come to this store and look around, for if you don't buy now you will later. Come tonight, tomorrow or at any time. We are always pleased to show you the great values we offer. We think you can't get their equal in any other store, but it's up to you to be the judge of this fact.

Fact Number Two About

A FIVE DOLLAR BILL

Now that Easter approaches, no doubt you are thinking of a new suit. The question is, where to get that new suit. We are not going to say come to this store and buy it. What we do say is, look around in other stores, see what they offer you at $15, $18 and $20, and before you finally decide on a purchase call at this store and examine our fine worsted suits at $9.95, $11.95 and $14.95. Just as sure as night follows the day you will find that if you buy here you will save a five dollar bill.

And the Reasons for Giving

Another Tailoring Concern Fails:

The Salem store of Taylor, the Tailor, turns their goods over to me through the assignee, Mr. Neal. After a legal battle the court decides that a clear title can be given for cash. I bought their Boston store, stock and fixtures, in January, but this store had their finest goods, which they tried to retain. Every yard in stock represented a value of from $3.00 to $5.00 and sold for $25 to $40.

Imagine, if you can, a Tailoring stock of the finest turned over at the start of the season for 20 cents on the dollar and you will understand my excuse for this sale.

These goods are on our counters now. The price will be:

TAUNTON CASE

Against License Board Goes to Higher Court

TAUNTON, March 26.—About the only thing of interest which has developed in the protracted hearings on the charges preferred by Mayor Edgar L. Crossman against Chairman John Welch and Charles G. Washburn of the board of license commissioners came at the opening of yesterday morning's session, when City Solicitor Hathaway, representing the prosecution, stated that an agreement had been made by Hon. George Fred Williams, ex-Mayor John B. Tracy and Richard P. Coughlin, representing the two commissioners, and Joseph E. Warner and himself of the prosecution. It is for the protection of the business in 1910 in case the mayor, after a consideration of the evidence, should find cause for the removal of one or both of the commissioners. It is agreed that he shall make no appointment to fill the vacancies until after the court has given a finding on a review of the evidence. On the part of the present commissioners it is also agreed that the board shall not grant any licenses until after the court's ruling.

Counsel on both sides also agree to obtain as speedy a hearing as possible in any court in the county, with reservations on both sides as to the justices. Both Mayor Crossman and Commissioners Welch and Washburn went on record as assenting to the agreement. This disposal of rumors that the present license commission would grant licenses before the hearing was ended and that any new commissioners who might be appointed by the mayor would also grant before the ruling of the courts on the matter.

AN ELOPEMENT

Was Broken Up by the Police

WORCESTER, Mar. 26.—Miss Rose Bolsvert, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Bolsvert of Manchester, N. H., spent last night in a cell in the local police headquarters instead of being with her intended husband, Isador Robert of a Warren street, Worcester, with whom she ran away from her Manchester home yesterday forenoon, after an acquaintance of only a week. She is held as a runaway at the request of the Manchester police, who took her home today.

Miss Bolsvert and Robert were arrested in the office of City Clerk Towne yesterday afternoon as they were trying to procure a marriage license. It was to be Robert's second trip on the sea of matrimony. He works for a local piano company, but last week he hurt his hand and had to lay off and he took advantage of the opportunity to make a visit to Manchester.

He fell in with the Bolsvert family and slept in their house on a chair one night. The next day he met Rose. He made love rapidly, and finally got the girl's consent to come to Worcester to become his wife. When Mrs. Bolsvert learned of the approaching marriage she refused to give her consent, but the lovers planned an elopement.

By a prearranged plan the couple came to Worcester yesterday morning. The local police were notified to arrest the girl as a runaway.

ANKLES BROKEN.

POWERS JUMPED FROM STEEPLE OF CHURCH

WENDELL, March 26.—Jesse Powers, 25, while suffering from melancholia, jumped from the steeple of the Congregational church yesterday afternoon to the hard ground below, a distance of about 75 feet. He struck on his feet and the heels of his shoes made dents in the grounds about two inches deep.

His ankles were fractured and he may prove to have severe internal injuries. He was taken to the Franklin County hospital at Greenfield and is likely to recover, it is said. He obtained the key to the church door from C. H. Cogswell, the postmaster and village merchant. Mr. Cogswell thought that Mr. Powers desired to obtain some article in the church.

Powers has been in poor health for two years and has brooded over his sickness.

ORVILLE WRIGHT

TO MAKE FLIGHT IN AIRPLANE AT FORT MEYER

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Aerial flight at Fort Meyer where the government aeronautic tests were held last summer will be resumed in May. The Wright brothers are expected to arrive with their airplane before the first of June. Orville Wright who was seriously injured in the wreck of his airplane at Fort Meyer last September hopes to complete the official trials of the airplane himself. In a letter received from Fort Meyer he says: "I am sufficiently recovered I will complete the demonstrations myself."

The Wrights have a contract to fulfill at Rome to which city they have gone from Pau, France. Orville Wright expresses his disappointment in his letter in not having been able to make a flight before leaving Pau. "The Wrights, accompanied by their sister, Miss Katherine Wright, expect to return to America about May 1."

The airplane of A. M. Herring of New York is also due at Fort Meyer before June as Mr. Herring must carry out the government trials prior to June 1.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

NEW YORK, March 26.—Despite the efforts to keep their identity secret, it was learned yesterday that the donor of the $500,000 fund to the Children's Aid society of this city for the establishment of a sanitarium for crippled children, announced yesterday, is Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, wife of A. A. Anderson, the artist, and daughter of the late Jeremiah Milbank, founder of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

IRISH MUSIC

FINE PROGRAM AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL HALL.

An excellent program of Irish music was carried out last night in the Immaculate Conception school hall, under the auspices of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church. Despite the inclement weather there was a very large attendance and those who braved the storm were fully repaid for their trouble, for the program was varied and the numbers well rendered.

Frank J. McCormick, president of the society, made the introductory remarks after which the first number on the program, "The Harp," was given. This was followed by "In the Hidden Land," and "Glenasmole," sung by Mrs. Mabel Lee Miller. Len Galloway, an excellent ventriloquist, gave a portion of

STATE PRISON

COUPLE GIVEN SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS

NEWPORT, Vt., March 26.—Two years each in state prison was the sentence imposed upon Mr. and Mrs. Levi Partridge in the Orleans county court here yesterday. Mr. Partridge pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter in having shot Ray Cramer, who had been paying attentions to his wife, and Mrs. Partridge admitted herself guilty of a statutory offense. Judge William W. Niles, in sentencing husband and wife, stated his hope that the couple would benefit by their confinement and leave the prison on good behavior.

Ray Cramer, 24 years old, was shot by Mr. Partridge, who is 35 years old, on Feb. 1 last. Cramer was traveling with Mrs. Partridge in the Orleans ferry boat when Mr. Partridge, jealous and jealous of Cramer from the fact that the latter was pursuing Partridge's wife, shot him in the chest.

WOMEN STRIKE

Say French Novels Are too "Racy"

BERKELEY, Cal., March 26.—Because the French novels assigned for their reading were "too racy" and "too shocking," twenty young women members of the senior class at the university of California conducted a successful strike. The young women declared that unless books that were more and of a much higher moral tone were given them in their class work, they would abandon the course entirely inasmuch as they had decided objections at being required to read about affairs and French heroines of the "Zola" type.

The women sent a delegation to their instructor, Prof. S. A. Chambers, and called his attention to some of the books to which they objected. The list included Balzac, Zola, DeMaupassant, the younger Dumas and Augier. The fair complainants stated that these tales were entirely "too racy."

Prof. Chambers decided to substitute Marcelle Provost, Anatole France, Prosper Merimee and other more staid and circumspect writers as a compromise.

CABLE CHESS MATCH
NEW YORK, March 26.—With cable exchanges of compliments play in the 11th annual cable chess match between America and Great Britain began today at the Hotel Savoy, London, and the rooms of the Brooklyn chess club here. The American team was completed and announced last night, but it was not until just before the time for beginning of play today that the names of all the contestants on the British team became known. Then it was found that four men who had been in the list of substitutes last night occupied places on the regular team today. The changes made were generally considered here as adding to the strength of the British team.

TURNED ON GAS

Mrs. Lorillard Tired of Society Life

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Weary of the gay whirl of society and face to face, as she believed, with years of physical suffering, Mrs. Caroline Hamilton Lorillard, aged 49, wife of Pierre Lorillard, Jr., the tobacco magnate, committed suicide by asphyxiation at her home near the fashionable Dupont circle in this city yesterday.

Her tragic death has shocked the first social circles of the capital as nothing else in years. Last night the members of the Lorillard family, famous because of its wealth, are gathered here to mourn over the unexpected blow.

The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been the guests of Mrs. Richard Townsend of Massachusetts at a dinner given in honor of Lady Paget. In fact, it is believed that as soon as Mrs. Lorillard arrived at her home at 2020 Hill-top place, shortly after midnight yesterday morning, she began to prepare for her death.

About 5.30 o'clock yesterday morning the butler in the Lorillard house detected an odor of gas, and the origin of the fumes was traced to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments. Opening the door of the bathroom off of her suite the butler found the body of the mistress of the house stretched out lifeless on the floor.

A telegram was received in this city Wednesday, announcing the serious illness of Mrs. John Harlan of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Harlan was formerly Miss Elizabeth Kelley of this city and Mr. Harlan at one time was instructor in golf at the Vesper-Country club.
